AN ACT to amend the executive law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to providing notice to the crime victim or victim's representative that a parolee or releasee is being discharged or released

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 259-j of the executive law, as amended by section 38-g of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, amended to read as follows:

§ 259-j. Discharge of sentence. 1. Except where a determinate sentence 4 was imposed for a felony other than a felony defined in article two 5 hundred twenty or article two hundred twenty-one of the penal law, if 7 the board of parole is satisfied that an absolute discharge from presumptive release, parole, conditional release or release to a period of post-release supervision is in the best interests of society, the 9 10 board may grant such a discharge prior to the expiration of the full 11 term or maximum term to any person who has been on unrevoked community 12 supervision for at least three consecutive years. A discharge granted 13 under this section shall constitute a termination of the sentence with 14 respect to which it was granted. No such discharge shall be granted 15 unless: (a) the board is satisfied that the parolee or releasee, other-16 wise financially able to comply with an order of restitution and the 17 payment of any mandatory surcharge, sex offender registration fee or DNA 18 databank fee previously imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction, has made a good faith effort to comply therewith; (b) the crime victim 19 or victim's representative is provided notice that the discharged paro-20 lee or releasee is having his or her sentence discharged; and (c) the 21 22 board considers any current or former statements made to it by a crime 23 victim or victim's representative pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article. 24

2. The chairman of the board of parole shall promulgate rules and 26 regulations governing: (a) the issuance of discharges from community supervision pursuant to this section to assure that such discharges are consistent with public safety; and (b) the notice provided to the crime victim or victim's representative that the parolee or releasee is being discharged from community supervision.

- 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contra-4 5 ry, where a term of post-release supervision in excess of five years has been imposed on a person convicted of a crime defined in article one 7 hundred thirty of the penal law, including a sexually motivated felony, the board of parole may grant a discharge from post-release supervision 9 prior to the expiration of the maximum term of post-release supervision. 10 Such a discharge may be granted only after the person has served at 11 least five years of post-release supervision, and only to a person who 12 has been on unrevoked post-release supervision for at least three consecutive years. No such discharge shall be granted unless the board 13 14 parole or the department acting pursuant to its responsibility under 15 subdivision one of section two hundred one of the correction law 16 consults with any licensed psychologist, qualified psychiatrist, or 17 other mental health professional who is providing care or treatment to the supervisee; and the board: (a) determines that a discharge from 18 post-release supervision is in the best interests of society; [and] (b) 19 20 is satisfied that the supervisee, otherwise financially able to comply 21 with an order of restitution and the payment of any mandatory surcharge, sex offender registration fee, or DNA [data bank fee previously imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction, has made a good faith 23 effort to comply therewith; (c) notifies the crime victim or victim's 24 25 representative that the individual is being released from post-release 26 supervision; and (d) considers any current or prior statements made to 27 it by a crime victim or victim's representatives pursuant to paragraph 28 (c) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of this article. Before making a determination to discharge a person from a period 29 30 of post-release supervision, the board of parole may request that the 31 commissioner of the office of mental health arrange a psychiatric evalu-32 ation of the supervisee. A discharge granted under this section shall constitute a termination of the sentence with respect to which it was 33 34 granted.
- § 2. Section 410.90 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:
  - 4. In no event may a court terminate a period of probation or a lifetime probation pursuant to this section unless:
  - (a) notice is provided to the crime victim or the victim's representative that the defendant's probation is being terminated; and
  - (b) the court considers any current or former statements made by the crime victim or victim's representative pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law.
- § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or before such date.
