- § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 413 of the social services law is amended by adding five new paragraphs (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i) to read as follows:
- (e) Unless the person confessing or confiding waives the privilege, a member of the clergy, or other minister of any religion or duly accredited Christian Science practitioner, shall not be required to make a report as required by paragraph (a) of this subdivision if the confession or confidence was made to him or her in his or her professional character as spiritual advisor.
- (f) When a member of the clergy has reasonable cause to suspect that a child is an abused or maltreated child based upon any information received other than through a confession or confidence made pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subdivision, then such member of the clergy shall promptly make a report as required by paragraph (a) of this subdivision notwithstanding the fact that he or she may have also received a report of abuse or maltreatment through a confession or confidence made pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subdivision.
- (g) The provisions of paragraph (e) of this subdivision shall not be deemed to exempt a member of the clergy from any other requirements of law to prevent the perpetrator from committing additional acts of abuse.
- (h) For the purposes of this subdivision the term "member of the clergy" shall have the same definition as the term "clergyman" as set forth in section two of the religious corporations law and shall also include any person responsible for supervising a member of the clergy of a religious institution or responsible for the administration of a religious institution.
- (i) For the purposes of this subdivision the term "religious institution" shall mean a religious corporation created to enable its members to meet for divine worship or other religious observances or a congre-
