AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law and the family court act, in relation to establishing a living allowance for adults with developmental disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The domestic relations law is amended by adding a new 2 section 240-d to read as follows:

3 § 240-d. Support orders for certain adult dependents. 1. Notwithstand-
4 ing any other law, a person who would otherwise be chargeable under law
5 with support of a minor child is also chargeable with the support of any 6 such individual until such individual reaches the age of twenty-six,
7 when it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the person is 8 developmentally disabled as defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 9 1.03 of the mental hygiene law, resides with the person seeking such 10 support, and is principally dependent on such person for maintenance. A 11 finding of a developmental disability shall be supported by a diagnosis
12 and accompanying report of a physician, licensed psychologist, regis-

1 tered professional nurse, licensed clinical social worker or a licensed
2 master social worker under the supervision of a physician, psychologist
3 or licensed clinical social worker authorized to practice under title 4 eight of the education law, and acting within their lawful scope of 5 practice.

6 2. Upon petition brought by such person, the court shall make its 7 award for support for such individual with a developmental disability in 8 accordance with the provisions of subdivision one-b of section two 9 hundred forty of this article. In addition to the provisions of subdivi-10 vision one-b of section two hundred forty of this article, the court may 11 consider whether the financial responsibility of caring for the individ-12 ual has been unreasonably placed on one parent when determining the 13 support obligation. The duration of time the court may use when consid-
14 ering this factor shall be limited to the time period from when the 15 child turned twenty-one until the individual turns twenty-six. If a
16 child support order ended at the age of eighteen then such time period
17 shall be from when the child turned eighteen until the individual turns
18 twenty-six.

19 3. The court has jurisdiction to determine proceedings brought by 20 petition and order to show cause, for the determination of support of 21 such adult dependents, as well as to enforce or modify orders or judg-
22 ments.

23 4. The court shall have discretion to order the payor party to make 24 support payments either to the petitioner or to the trustee of an 25 "exception trust" as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4)(A) and (C), 26 clause (iii) of subparagraph two of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of 27 section three hundred sixty-six of the social services law, and section 28 7-1.12 of the estates, powers and trusts law if such direction would 29 assist in maximizing assistance to the child.

30 5. Except where inconsistent with this section, all provisions of this 31 article relating to orders of child support shall apply to all orders of 32 support for adults with developmental disabilities.

33 § 2. The family court act is amended by adding a new section 413-b to 34 read as follows:

35 § 413-b. Support orders for certain adult dependents. 1. Notwithstand-
36 ing any other law, a person who would otherwise be chargeable under law
37 with support of a minor child is also chargeable with the support of any 38 such individual until such individual reaches the age of twenty-six,
39 when it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the person is 40 developmentally disabled as defined under subdivision twenty-two of 41 section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law, resides with the person seeking 42 such support, and is principally dependent on such person for mainte-
43 nance. A finding of a developmental disability shall be supported by a 44 diagnosis and accompanying report of a physician, licensed psychologist,
45 registered professional nurse, licensed clinical social worker or a 46 licensed master social worker under the supervision of a physician,
47 psychologist or licensed clinical social worker authorized to practice
48 under title eight of the education law, and acting within their lawful 49 scope of practice.

50 2. Upon petition brought by the parent or kinship caregiver of an 51 adult child with a disability, the court shall make its award for 52 support for such individual with a developmental disability in accord-53 ance with the provisions of subdivision one of section four hundred 54 thirteen of this part. In addition to the provisions of subdivision one 55 of section four hundred thirteen of this part, the court may consider 56 whether the financial responsibility of caring for the individual has

1 been unreasonably placed on one parent when determining the child
2 support obligation. The duration of time the court may use when consid-
3 ering this factor shall be limited to the time period from when the
4 child turned twenty-one until the individual turns twenty-six. If a
5 child support order ended at the age of eighteen then such time period
6 shall be from when the child turned eighteen until the individual turns
7 twenty-six.

8 3. The court has jurisdiction to determine proceedings brought by 9 petition and order to show cause, for the determination of support of 10 such dependents, as well as to enforce or modify orders or judgments.

11 4. The court shall have discretion to order the payor party to make 12 support payments either to the petitioner or to the trustee of an 13 "exception trust" as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4)(A) and (C), clause
14 (iii) of subparagraph two of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 15 three hundred sixty-six of the social services law, and section 7-1.12 16 of the estates, powers and trusts law if such direction would assist in 17 maximizing assistance to the child.

18 5. Except where inconsistent with this section, all provisions of this
19 article relating to orders of child support shall apply to all orders of 20 support for adults with developmental disabilities.

21 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
