AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to the appointment and promotion of supervisors of the fire alarm dispatcher service

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section
2 59-d to read as follows:

3 § 59-d. Promotions of supervisory personnel of the fire alarm
4 dispatcher service. 1. The legislature hereby finds and declares that 5 the continued, uninterrupted, adequate and efficient operation of fire 6 and emergency medical services is necessary for the general welfare of 7 the people and that such adequate operation involves and requires
8 personnel with highly specialized ability, skill, training and know-
9 ledge, which necessitates that vacancies in the fire alarm dispatcher
10 service in the position of supervising fire alarm dispatcher level II
11 shall be filled as far as practicable by promotion from among persons 12 holding competitive class positions in a lower grade in the department
13 in which the vacancy exists, provided that such lower grade positions 14 are in direct line of promotion, as determined by the department or 15 municipal commission.

16 2. Promotion shall be based on merit and fitness as determined by 17 competitive examination, due weight being given to seniority. The previ-
18 ous training and experience of the candidates, and performance ratings 19 where available, may be considered and given due weight as factors in 20 determining the relative merit and fitness of candidates for promotion.

21 3. Any permanent competitive employee holding a provisional or discre-
22 tionary appointment in the affected supervisory title of the fire alarm 23 dispatcher service described in subdivision one of this section shall be 24 given the opportunity to participate in a competitive promotional exam-
25 ination for the next higher level title.

26 4. Except as provided above, the provisions of this chapter shall 27 apply to employees covered by this section.

28 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
