1 2. For any felony, an authorized sentence includes a sentence other 2 than incarceration or a definite sentence of imprisonment. The court may 3 fix such authorized sentence for one year or less.

4 3. (a) Before imposing a sentence of imprisonment, the court shall 5 conduct a hearing to determine whether the presumption against incarcer-6 ation has been overcome.

7 (i) In order to overcome the presumption against incarceration, the 8 prosecutor must show, by clear and convincing evidence, that there are 9 no means to address the unlawful behavior and promote community safety 10 other than imprisonment.

11 (ii) At the hearing the court shall consider oral and written argu-12 ments, take testimony from witnesses offered by either party, and 13 consider relevant evidence to assist in making its determination, 14 including testimony and evidence admitted in prior proceedings in the 20 (iv) If the court finds that the presumption has been overcome, it 21 shall proceed to impose the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to 22 achieve the goals of sentencing.

23 (v) If a hearing is not held or the presumption has not been overcome 24 the court shall impose a non-incarceratory sentence unless the hearing 25 has been waived pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

26 (vi) A defendant shall not be required to pay for any part of the cost 27 of their sentence.

28 (vii) Upon request of the defendant, the court shall conduct the hear-29 ing promptly after the rendering of a guilty verdict or the entry of a 30 guilty plea.

31 (b) In considering whether the presumption against incarceration has 32 been overcome and, where relevant, what the appropriate incarceratory 33 sentence should be, the court shall consider the following:

34 (i) the unique harms of imprisonment, including interruption of 35 defendant's connections to family, employment, needed public benefits, 36 healthcare, and housing;

37 (ii) the financial cost of incarceration to the state and/or locali-38 ties;

39 (iii) any mitigating circumstances that bear on the manner in which

2 victimization; and

3 (11) the factors set forth in subdivision one of section 60.12 of this 4 title.

5 (c) The court shall not consider or draw any negative inference from a 6 defendant's silence or failure to express remorse.

7 4. If a defendant testifies at the hearing, such testimony shall not 8 be admissible in any subsequent proceeding.

9 5. A defendant may knowingly and voluntarily waive their rights under 10 this section.

11 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 380.50 of the criminal procedure law, as 12 amended by chapter 307 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as 13 follows:

14 1. The court shall impose sentence in accordance with the procedures 15 set forth in section 60.03 of the penal law. At the time of pronouncing 16 sentence, the court must accord the prosecutor an opportunity to make a 17 statement with respect to any matter relevant to the question of 18 sentence. The court must then accord counsel for the defendant an oppor-19 tunity to speak on behalf of the defendant. The defendant also has the 31 by paragraph (b) of this subdivision which shall be considered part of 32 the report. The report shall include an analysis of the actual finan-33 cial cost of incarceration to the state and/or localities of the poten-34 tial sentences that may be imposed.

35 § 5. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 390.50 of the criminal

41 copying and retention by the defendant's attorney, the defendant 42 himself, ~~[if he has no attorney,~~ and the prosecutor. The defendant 43 shall be given an opportunity to challenge or correct any fact or 44 conclusion in the pre-sentence report or memorandum prior to the court's 45 pronouncement of sentence and no later than at the hearing conducted in 46 accordance with subdivision three of section 60.03 of the penal law. In 47 its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part or parts of 48 the report or memoranda which are not relevant to a proper sentence, or 49 a diagnostic opinion which might seriously disrupt a program of rehabil-50 itation, or sources of information which have been obtained on a promise 51 of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of which 52 would not be in the interest of justice. In all cases where a part or 53 parts of the report or memoranda are not disclosed, the court shall 54 state for the record that a part or parts of the report or memoranda 55 have been excepted and the reasons for its action. The action of the 56 court excepting information from disclosure shall be subject to appel-

1 late review. The pre-sentence report shall be made available by the 2 court for examination and copying in connection with any appeal in the 3 case, including an appeal under this subdivision. Upon written request, 4 the court shall make a copy of the presentence report, other than a part 5 or parts of the report redacted by the court pursuant to this paragraph, 6 available to the defendant for use before the parole board for release 7 consideration or an appeal of a parole board determination or an appli-8 cation for resentencing pursuant to section 440.46 or 440.47 of this 9 chapter. [~~In his or her written request to the court the defendant shall 10 affirm that he or she anticipates an appearance before the parole board 11 or intends to file an administrative appeal of a parole board determi-12 nation or meets the eligibility criteria for and intends to file a 13 motion for resentencing pursuant to 440.46 of this chapter or has 14 received notification from the court which received his or her request 15 to apply for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter 16 confirming that he or she is eligible to submit an application for 17 resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter.~~] The court

20 § 6. Section 70.00 of the penal law, the section heading as amended by 21 chapter 277 of the laws of 1973, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 7

28 § 70.00 Sentence of imprisonment for felony.

29 1. Indeterminate sentence. Except as provided in subdivisions three 30 and four [~~, five and six~~] of this section or section 70.80 of this arti-31 cle, [~~a~~] the term of sentence [~~of imprisonment~~] for a felony, other than 32 a felony defined in article two hundred twenty or two hundred twenty-one 33 of this chapter, shall be fixed by the court in accordance with section 34 60.03 of this title. If a court finds that sentence of imprisonment of 35 more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to 36 achieve the goals of sentencing, the court shall impose an indeterminate 37 sentence. When such a sentence is imposed, the court shall impose a 38 maximum term in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of 39 this section [~~and the minimum period of imprisonment shall be as~~ 40 ~~provided in subdivision three of this section~~]. The minimum period 41 shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence and shall be 42 not less than one year nor more than one-third of the maximum term 43 imposed, or the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and 44 fix a term of one year or less.

45 2. Maximum term of sentence. The maximum term of an indeterminate 46 sentence shall be at least three years and the term shall be fixed as 47 follows:

- 48 (a) For a class A felony, the term shall be life imprisonment; 49 (b) For a class B felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and 50 shall not exceed twenty-five years;
51 (c) For a class C felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and 52 shall not exceed fifteen years;
53 (d) For a class D felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and 54 shall not exceed seven years; and 55 (e) For a class E felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and 56 shall not exceed four years.

1 3. ~~[Minimum period of imprisonment. The minimum period of imprisonment~~ 2 ~~under an indeterminate sentence shall be at least one year and shall be~~ 3 ~~fixed as follows:~~

4 ~~(a) In the case of a class A felony, the minimum period shall be fixed~~ 5 ~~by the court and specified in the sentence.~~

6 ~~(i) For a class A-I felony, such minimum period shall not be less than~~ 7 ~~fifteen years nor more than twenty five years, provided, however, that~~ 8 ~~(A) where a sentence, other than a sentence of death or life imprison-~~ 9 ~~ment without parole, is imposed upon a defendant convicted of murder in~~ 10 ~~the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter such mini-~~ 11 ~~imum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more than twenty five~~ 12 ~~years, and, (B) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant convicted~~ 13 ~~of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section~~ 14 ~~125.25 of this chapter or convicted of aggravated murder as defined in~~ 15 ~~section 125.26 of this chapter, the sentence shall be life imprisonment~~
16 ~~without parole, and, (C) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant~~ 17 ~~convicted of attempted murder in the first degree as defined in article~~ 18 ~~one hundred ten of this chapter and subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of~~ 19 ~~paragraph (a) of subdivision one and paragraph (b) of subdivision one of~~ 20 ~~section 125.27 of this chapter or attempted aggravated murder as defined~~ 21 ~~in article one hundred ten of this chapter and section 125.26 of this~~ 22 ~~chapter such minimum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more~~ 23 ~~than forty years.~~

24 ~~(ii) For a class A-II felony, such minimum period shall not be less~~ 25 ~~than three years nor more than eight years four months, except that for~~ 26 ~~the class A II felony of predatory sexual assault as defined in section~~ 27 ~~130.95 of this chapter or the class A II felony of predatory sexual~~ 28 ~~assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of this chapter,~~ 29 ~~such minimum period shall be not less than ten years nor more than twen-~~ 30 ~~ty five years.~~

31 ~~(b) For any other felony, the minimum period shall be fixed by the~~ 32 ~~court and specified in the sentence and shall be not less than one year~~ 33 ~~nor more than one third of the maximum term imposed.~~

34 ~~4. Alternative definite sentence for class D and E felonies. When a~~ 35 ~~person, other than a second or persistent felony offender, is sentenced~~ 36 ~~for a class D or class E felony, and the court, having regard to the~~ 37 ~~nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character~~ 38 ~~of the defendant, is of the opinion that a sentence of imprisonment is~~ 39 ~~necessary but that it would be unduly harsh to impose an indeterminate~~ 40 ~~or determinate sentence, the court may impose a definite sentence of~~ 41 ~~imprisonment and fix a term of one year or less.~~

42 ~~5.]~~ Life imprisonment without parole. Notwithstanding any other 43 provision of law, a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment without 44 parole shall not be or become eligible for parole or conditional 45 release. For purposes of commitment and custody, other than parole and 46 conditional release, such sentence shall be deemed to be an indetermi-47 nate sentence. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without 48 parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the first degree as 49 defined in section 125.27 of this chapter and in accordance with the 50 procedures provided by law for imposing a sentence for such crime. A 51 defendant who was eighteen years of age or older at the time of the 52 commission of the crime must be sentenced to life imprisonment without 53 parole upon conviction for the crime of terrorism as defined in section 54 490.25 of this chapter, where the specified offense the defendant 55 committed is a class A-I felony; the crime of criminal possession of a 56 chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in

1 section 490.45 of this chapter; or the crime of criminal use of a chemi-2 cal weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in 3 section 490.55 of this chapter; provided, however, that nothing in this 4 subdivision shall preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the 5 defendant is also convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree 6 as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter. A defendant who was seven-7 teen years of age or younger at the time of the commission of the crime 8 may be sentenced, in accordance with law, to the applicable indetermi-9 nate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment. A defendant must 10 be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the 11 crime of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of 12 section 125.25 of this chapter or for the crime of aggravated murder as 13 defined in subdivision one of section 125.26 of this chapter. A defend-14 ant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction 15 for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision two of 16 section 125.26 of this chapter.

17 ~~[6.]~~ 4. Determinate sentence. ~~[Except as provided in subdivision four~~ 18 ~~of this section and subdivisions two and four of section 70.02, when]~~

20 section 70.02 ~~[or as a second violent felony offender pursuant to~~ 21 ~~section 70.04 or as a second felony offender on a conviction for a~~ 22 ~~violent felony offense pursuant to section 70.06]~~ of this article, the 23 sentence shall be fixed by the court in accordance with section 60.03 of 24 this title. If a court finds that a sentence of imprisonment of more 25 than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve 26 the goals of sentencing, the court must impose a determinate sentence of 27 imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of such ~~[sections and~~ 28 ~~such sentence shall include, as a part thereof, a period of post-release~~ 29 ~~supervision in accordance with section 70.45]~~ section.

30 § 7. Subdivision d of section 74 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1995,

41 ~~[3.]~~ 2 Term of sentence. The term ~~[of a determinate sentence]~~ for a 42 violent felony offense must be fixed by the court in accordance with 43 section 60.03 of this title. If a court finds that a sentence of impri-44 sonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment neces-45 sary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court shall impose a deter-46 minate sentence as follows:

47 (a) For a class B felony, the term must be at least ~~[five years]~~ one 40 § 70.25 Concurrent and consecutive terms of imprisonment.

41 1. Except as provided in [~~subdivisions~~] subdivision two[~~, two-a and~~ 42 ~~five~~] of this section, when multiple sentences of imprisonment are 43 imposed on a person at the same time, or when a person who is subject to 44 any undischarged term of imprisonment imposed at a previous time by a 45 court of this state is sentenced to an additional term of imprisonment, 46 the sentence or sentences imposed by the court shall run either concur-47 rently or consecutively with respect to each other and the undischarged 48 term or terms in such manner as the court directs at the time of 49 sentence. If the court does not specify the manner in which a sentence 50 imposed by it is to run, the sentence shall run as follows:

51 (a) An indeterminate or determinate sentence shall run concurrently 52 with all other terms; and

53 (b) A definite sentence shall run concurrently with [~~any sentence~~ 54 ~~imposed at the same time and shall be consecutive to any other term~~] all 55 other terms.

1 2. When more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed on a person 2 for two or more offenses committed through a single act or omission, or 3 through an act or omission which in itself constituted one of the 4 offenses and also was a material element of the other, the sentences, 5 except if one or more of such sentences is for a violation of section 6 270.20 of this chapter, must run concurrently.

7 ~~[2-a. When an indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment is 8 imposed pursuant to section 70.04, 70.06, 70.07, 70.08, 70.10, subdivi-

12 article, and such person is subject to an undischarged indeterminate or 13 determinate sentence of imprisonment imposed prior to the date on which 14 the present crime was committed, the court must impose a sentence to run 15 consecutively with respect to such undischarged sentence.~~

16 ~~2-b. When a person is convicted of a violent felony offense committed 17 after arraignment and while released on recognizance or bail, but 18 committed prior to the imposition of sentence on a pending felony 19 charge, and if an indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment 20 is imposed in each case, such sentences shall run consecutively.
21 Provided, however, that the court may, in the interest of justice, order 22 a sentence to run concurrently in a situation where consecutive 23 sentences are required by this subdivision if it finds either mitigating 24 circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was 25 committed or, where the defendant was not the sole participant in the 26 crime, the defendant's participation was relatively minor although not 27 so minor as to constitute a defense to the prosecution. The defendant 28 and the district attorney shall have an opportunity to present relevant 29 information to assist the court in making this determination and the 30 court may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing with respect to any 31 issue bearing upon such determination. If the court determines that 32 consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it shall make a statement 33 on the record of the facts and circumstances upon which such determi-34 nation is based.~~

35 ~~2-c. When a person is convicted of bail jumping in the second degree 36 as defined in section 215.56 or bail jumping in the first degree as 38 on recognizance or bail in connection with a pending indictment or 39 information charging one or more felonies, at least one of which he is 40 subsequently convicted, and if an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment 41 is imposed in each case, such sentences shall run consecutively.

42 Provided, however, that the court may, in the interest of justice, order 43 a sentence to run concurrently in a situation where consecutive 44 sentences are required by this subdivision if it finds mitigating 45 circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was 46 committed. The defendant and the district attorney shall have an oppor-47 tunity to present relevant information to assist the court in making 48 this determination and the court may, in its discretion, conduct a hear-49 ing with respect to any issue bearing upon such determination. If the 50 court determines that consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it 51 shall make a statement on the record of the facts and circumstances upon 52 which such determination is based.~~

53 ~~2-d. When a person is convicted of escape in the second degree as 54 defined in section 205.10 or escape in the first degree as defined in 55 section 205.15 committed after issuance of a securing order, as defined 56 in subdivision five of section 500.10 of the criminal procedure law, in~~

~~connection with a pending indictment or information charging one or more felonies, at least one of which he is subsequently convicted, and if an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment is imposed in each case, such sentences shall run consecutively. Provided, however, that the court may, in the interest of justice, order a sentence to run concurrently in a situation where consecutive sentences are required by this subdivision if it finds mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was committed. The defendant and the district attorney shall have an opportunity to present relevant information to assist the court in making this determination and the court may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing with respect to any issue bearing upon such determination. If the court determines that consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it shall make a statement on the record of the facts and circumstances upon which such determination is based.~~

~~[2-f.]~~ 2-b. Whenever a person is convicted of facilitating a sex offense with a controlled substance as defined in section 130.90 of this chapter, the sentence imposed by the court for such offense may be ordered to run consecutively to any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense defined in article one hundred thirty of this chapter arising from the same criminal transaction.

4. When a person, who is subject to any undischarged term of imprisonment imposed at a previous time by a court of another jurisdiction, is sentenced to an additional term or terms of imprisonment by a court of this state, the sentence or sentences imposed by the court of this state, subject to the provisions of subdivisions one, two and three of this section, shall run either concurrently or consecutively with respect to such undischarged term in such manner as the court directs at the time of sentence. If the court of this state does not specify the manner in which a sentence imposed by it is to run, the sentence or sentences shall run ~~[consecutively]~~ concurrently.

~~[5. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, when a person is convicted of assault in the second degree, as defined in subdivision seven of section 120.05 of this chapter, any definite, indeterminate or determinate term of imprisonment which may be imposed as a sentence upon such conviction shall run consecutively to any undisc-~~

29 of the determinate sentences shall merge in and be satisfied by 30 discharge of the term which has the longest unexpired time to run;

31 (f) The aggregate maximum term of consecutive sentences imposed upon a 32 juvenile offender for two or more crimes, not including a class A felo-

3 direct that the action be removed to the family court in accordance with 4 the provisions of article seven hundred twenty-five of this chapter.

5 [~~(g-1)~~] 5-a. Where a defendant is an adolescent offender, the 10 court act, and the action shall be removed to the family court in 11 accordance with article seven hundred twenty-five of this chapter. Where 12 the plea is to an offense constituting a felony, the court may remove 13 the action to the family court in accordance with section 722.23 and 14 article seven hundred twenty-five of this chapter.

15 [~~(h) Where the indictment charges the class E felony offense of aggra-

18 at least a plea of guilty to a class E felony.~~]

19 6. The defendant may, with both the permission of the court and the 20 consent of the people, enter a plea of not responsible by reason of 21 mental disease or defect to the indictment in the manner prescribed in 22 section 220.15 of this chapter.

23 § 43. Subdivision 3 of section 220.30 of the criminal procedure law is
