AN ACT to amend the racing, pari-mutuel wagering and breeding law, in relation to prohibiting off-track betting corporation vehicles from being used as take-home vehicles

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The racing, pari-mutuel wagering and breeding law is amended by adding a new section 503-c to read as follows:

§ 503-c. Prohibition on take-home vehicles. 1. No regional off-track betting corporation shall issue to any board member, officer, or employee of such corporation, any contractor, subcontractor, consultant, or other agent of such corporation, or any spouse, child, sibling or parent residing in the principal place of abode of any of such foregoing persons a motor vehicle. All motor vehicles leased, owned or otherwise controlled by such corporation shall be returned to corporation property when not being used for official business of such corporation.

2. Notwithstanding subdivision one of this section, a regional off-track betting corporation shall be allowed to issue take-home vehicles to employees and officers provided such corporation has a written policy on take-home vehicles that is compliant with the office of the state comptroller rules and regulations, that such written policy has been approved by the gaming commission, and such policy and records related to such written policy are subject to random audits conducted by the gaming commission.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
