AN ACT to amend the social services law and the workers' compensation law, in relation to payment for contingency management programs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 2 367-w to read as follows:

- § 367-w. Payment for contingency management programs. 1. For the purpose of this section, "contingency management program" means a substance use disorder treatment service that provides an incentive structure, including scaling rewards for continued evidence of specified behaviors or adherence to treatment goals, that rewards participants for specified behaviors, provided the receipt of any incentive or reward pursuant to such a program shall not be considered income for purposes of eligibility for public benefits or other public assistance to the extent allowed by law.
- 2. The commissioner may authorize the payment of medical assistance funds for contingency management programs. The commissioner shall, in consultation with the AIDS Institute and the office of addiction services and supports:
- a. Issue guidance on the use of contingency management programs for beneficiaries who access substance use disorder services under the medical assistance program;
- b. Establish limits on the number and value of incentives available to beneficiaries who receive services pursuant to a contingency management program; and
- 22 c. Determine maximum allowable rates for contingency management
 23 programs based upon the medical assistance program fee-for-service
 24 outpatient rates for the same or similar services, or any other data
 25 deemed reliable and relevant by the commissioner.
- 3. Subdivision two of this section shall be effective if, and as long as, federal financial participation is available for medical assistance expenditures made pursuant to it.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
