AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to prohibiting non-compete agreements and certain restrictive covenants

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 191-d to 2 read as follows:

- § 191-d. Non-compete agreements. 1. For the purposes of this section, 4 the term:
- 5 (a) "non-compete agreement" means any agreement, or clause contained
 6 in any employment contract, between an employer and an employee that 7 prohibits or restricts such employee from obtaining employment, after 8 the conclusion of employment with the employer included as a party to 9 the agreement; and
- (b) "covered employee" means any other person who, whether or not employed under a contract of employment, performs work or services for another person on such terms and conditions that they are, in relation to that other person, in a position of economic dependence on, and under an obligation to perform duties for, that other person, including independent contractors.
- 2. No employer or its agent, or the officer or agent of any corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, shall seek, require, demand or accept a non-compete agreement from any covered employee.
- 3. Every contract by which anyone is restrained from engaging in a lawful profession, trade, or business of any kind is to that extent void. For all covered employees, no employer or his or her agent, or the officer or agent of any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, shall seek, require, demand or accept a non-compete agreement from any employee.
- 25 4. (a) A covered employee, may bring a civil action in a court of 26 competent jurisdiction against any employer or persons alleged to have

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

violated this section. An employee shall bring such action within two years of the later of: (i) when the prohibited non-compete agreement was signed; (ii) when the employee learns of the prohibited non-compete agreement; (iii) when the employment relationship is terminated; or (iv) 5 when the employer takes any step to enforce the non-compete agreement. The court shall have jurisdiction to void any such non-compete agreement 7 and to order all appropriate relief, including enjoining the conduct of any person or employer; ordering payment of liquidated damages; and 8 9 awarding lost compensation, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees and 10 costs.

- (b) For the purposes of this subdivision, liquidated damages shall be 12 calculated as an amount not more than ten thousand dollars. The court shall award liquidated damages to every employee affected under this section, in addition to any other remedies permitted by this section.
 - § 2. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.
- 24 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 25 it shall have become a law.
