Introduced by M. of A. HEASTIE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT extending the time within which certain elected and appointed officers may take or file their oaths of office or official undertakings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any law, rule, or regulation to the contrary, any duly elected or appointed officer or officers within any city in the state of New York as of January 1, 2022 through March 31, 2022, who failed to take or file their oath of office or official undertaking within the statutory prescribed period shall be permitted to continue to serve in such capacity for the duration of their term upon the taking and filing of their required oath of office or official undertaking consistent with sections 10 and 11 of the public officers law within 30 days of the effective date of this act. Such elected and appointed officers who take and file their oath of office or official undertaking shall be deemed to have been continuously serving in office as of January 1, 2022 or the date prescribed by their election through March 31, 2022.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
