IN ASSEMBLY

March 28, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. LUNSFORD -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law and the state finance law, in relation to establishing the community literacy fund

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new article 102 to 2 read as follows:

ARTICLE 102

COMMUNITY LITERACY PROGRAMS

Section 5050. Definitions.

5051. Grants.

5052. Report.

8 § 5050. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms
9 shall have the following meanings:

1. "Eligible agency" means:

11 (a) an organization having tax exempt status under section 501(c) of 12 the United States Internal Revenue Code which provides adult education 13 and literacy services to residents of the state of New York and which 14 utilizes volunteers to directly provide such services; or 15 (b) an organization having tax exempt status under section 501(c) of 16 the United States Internal Revenue Code whose primary purpose is provid-17 ing adult education and literacy services which provides other adult 18 literacy organizations with technical assistance, including training, 19 data reporting, or operational assistance.

20 2. "Adult education and literacy services" means services which assist 21 adults in acquiring the necessary basic skills needed to be productive 22 workers, family members, and citizens, including but not limited to,
23 reading, writing, math, English language proficiency, and problem-solv-24 ing skills.

25 § 5051. Grants. 1. The commissioner shall be authorized to make grants 26 to eligible agencies that conduct community literacy programs from funds 27 held within the community literacy fund pursuant to section ninety-nine-28 oo of the state finance law in accordance with the procedures set forth

1 by this section. No for-profit agency or institution may act as the 2 fiscal agent of any grant receivable under the provisions of this 3 section.

4 2. Eligible agencies shall submit proposals to the commissioner to 5 fund authorized expenditures in support of community literacy programs.
6 Such proposals shall be in a form and shall be submitted on a schedule 7 prescribed by the commissioner.

8 3. The commissioner shall adopt rules and regulations to establish 9 eligibility criteria and procedures for the award of such grants and to 10 otherwise implement the provisions of this section. The commissioner 11 shall award grants using the eligibility criteria established in regu-12 lation and shall determine the amount of each grant award.

13 4. Subject to the availability of funds for such purpose, upon 14 approval of a proposal by the commissioner, the commissioner shall 15 distribute the grant allocation according to a schedule prescribed by 16 the commissioner.

17 5. The commissioner shall adopt rules and regulations to create a 18 reporting schedule for the agencies who receive grants pursuant to this 19 section. Data to be reported by agencies who are eligible pursuant to 20 paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section five thousand fifty of this 21 article shall allow recipients to show the impact of their work on indi-22 viduals, based upon their needs and goals, and may include educational 23 gain, civic participation, digital literacy skills mastery, improved 24 health literacy, improved financial literacy, and engagement in chil-25 dren's schooling. Agencies who are eligible pursuant to paragraph (a) of 26 subdivision one of section five thousand fifty of this article shall 27 report impact data.

28 § 5052. Report. On or before January first, two thousand twenty-three 29 and by January first of each year thereafter, the commissioner shall 30 submit to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the 31 speaker of the assembly a report describing and evaluating the community 32 literacy programs funded pursuant to this article.

33 § 2. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 99-oo to 34 read as follows:

35 § 99-oo. Community literacy fund. 1. Notwithstanding any other 36 provision of law, rule, regulation or practice to the contrary, there is 37 hereby established in the joint custody of the state comptroller and the 38 commissioner of education a community literacy fund, which shall consist 39 of all moneys appropriated to the fund by the department of education 40 and all moneys collected from individuals for the implementation of 41 community literacy programs as specified in article one hundred two of 42 the education law.

43 2. Moneys within the community literacy fund shall be made available 44 to the commissioner of education to provide grants to eligible agencies, 45 as such term is defined pursuant to subdivision one of section five 46 thousand fifty of the education law, in accordance with the regulations 47 set forth in article one hundred two of the education law.

48 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
