Introduced by M. of A. L. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the education law and the public health law, in relation to prohibiting disciplinary measures against health care practitioners for providing reproductive health services to patients who reside in states where such services are illegal

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 6531-b 2 to read as follows:

3 § 6531-b. Exceptions; reproductive health services. 1. As used in this 4 section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

5 (a) "Reproductive health services" shall include:

6 (i) abortion pursuant to section twenty-five hundred ninety-nine-bb of 7 the public health law;

8 (ii) emergency contraception as defined in section twenty-eight 9 hundred five-p of the public health law; and

10 (iii) medical, surgical, counseling or referral services relating to 11 the human reproductive system, including services relating to pregnancy 12 or the termination of a pregnancy.

13 (b) "Health care practitioner" means a person who is licensed, certi-14 fied, or authorized under this title and acting within their lawful 15 scope of practice.

16 2. The performance, recommendation, or provision of any reproductive 17 health services as defined in subdivision one of this section, by a 18 health care practitioner acting within their scope of practice, for a 19 patient who resides in a state wherein the performance, recommendation, 20 or provision of such reproductive health services is illegal, shall not,
21 by itself, constitute professional misconduct under this title, or title 22 two-A of article two of the public health law, or any other law, rule or 23 regulation governing the licensure, certification, or authorization of 24 such practitioner, nor shall any license, certification or authorization 25 of a health care practitioner be revoked, suspended, or annulled or

1 otherwise subject to any other penalty or discipline provided in the 2 public health law or this title solely on the basis that such health
3 care practitioner performed, recommended, or provided any such reproduc-4 tive health services for a patient who resides in a state wherein the 5 performance, recommendation, or provision of such reproductive health 6 services is illegal.

7 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to expand the scope of 8 practice of any individual licensed, certified or authorized under this 9 title, nor does this section give any such individual the authority to 10 act outside their scope of practice, as defined in this title.

11 § 2. Section 230 of the public health law is amended by adding a new 12 subdivision 9-c to read as follows:

13 9-c. (a) Neither the board for professional medical conduct nor the 14 office of professional medical conduct shall charge a licensee, acting 15 within their scope of practice, with misconduct as defined in sections 16 sixty-five hundred thirty and sixty-five hundred thirty-one of the 17 education law, or cause a report made to the director of such office to 18 be investigated beyond a preliminary review as set forth in clause (A) 19 of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of subdivision ten of this section, 20 where such report is determined to be based solely upon the performance, 21 recommendation, or provision of any reproductive health services as 22 defined in section sixty-five hundred thirty-one-b of the education law 23 for a particular patient by such licensee where such patient resides in 24 a state wherein the performance, recommendation or provision of such 25 reproductive health services is illegal.

26 (b) When a licensee, acting within their scope of practice, and in 27 accordance with paragraph e of subdivision four of section sixty-five 28 hundred twenty-seven of the education law, performs, recommends or 29 provides any reproductive health services for a patient who resides in a 30 state wherein the performance, recommendation, or provision of any such 31 reproductive health services is illegal, such performance, recommenda-32 tion, or provision of such reproductive health services for such 33 patient, shall not, by itself, constitute professional misconduct. The 34 licensee shall otherwise abide by all other applicable professional 35 requirements.

36 § 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 10 of section 230 of the public 37 health law is amended by adding a new subparagraph (i-a) to read as 38 follows:

39 (i-a) The director shall, in addition to the determination required by 40 clause (A) of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, determine if a report 41 is based solely upon conduct which is otherwise permissible pursuant to 42 section sixty-five hundred thirty-one-b of the education law and subdi-
43 vision nine-c of this section, and upon a determination by the director 44 that a report is based solely upon such permissible conduct, no further 45 review shall be conducted and no charges shall be brought. Nothing in 46 this section shall preclude the director from making such a determi-47 nation earlier in, or subsequent to, a preliminary review.

48 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 49 the amendments to paragraph (a) of subdivision 10 of section 230 of the 50 public health law made by section three of this act shall not affect the 51 expiration of such paragraph and shall be deemed expired therewith.
