AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, in relation to information concerning services for human trafficking victims in service areas maintained by the thruway authority

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new section 389 to read as follows:

§ 389. Information concerning services for human trafficking victims in facilities at service areas. 1. In addition to providing information concerning services for human trafficking victims, including the national human trafficking hotline telephone number on its closed circuit television systems, any service area maintained or operated by the authority shall make available in plain view and in a conspicuous place and manner in the public restrooms, informational cards and/or signs developed by:

(i) the office of temporary and disability assistance in consultation with the New York state interagency task force on human trafficking; or

(ii) the United States Department of Homeland Security.

2. All informational cards and signs shall only contain information concerning services for human trafficking victims and shall prominently include the national human trafficking hotline telephone number.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
