IN ASSEMBLY

April 19, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. CLARK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring reporting to the federal bureau of investigation's national use-of-force data collection program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 837-t of the executive law is amended by adding a
2 new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3 3. a. In addition to the reporting requirements established pursuant 4 to subdivision one of this section, the chief of every police depart-5 ment, each county sheriff, and the superintendent of state police shall 6 report to the federal bureau of investigation's national use-of-force 7 data collection program, in a form and manner as requested by such 8 bureau, any instance or occurrence in which a police officer, as defined 9 in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure
10 law, or a peace officer, as defined in section 2.10 of the criminal 11 procedure law, employs the use of force as follows:

12 (i) brandishes, uses or discharges a firearm or non-lethal projection 13 weapon, including, but not limited to, the use of rubber bullets, at or 14 in the direction of another person; or

15 (ii) uses a chokehold or similar restraint that applies pressure to 16 the throat or windpipe of a person in a manner that may hinder breathing 17 or reduce intake of air; or

18 (iii) displays, uses or deploys a chemical agent, including, but not 19 limited to, oleoresin capsicum, pepper spray or tear gas; or

20 (iv) brandishes, uses or deploys an impact weapon, including, but not 21 limited to, a baton or billy; or

22 (v) brandishes, uses or deploys an electronic control weapon, includ-
23 ing, but not limited to, an electronic stun gun, flash bomb or long 24 range acoustic device; or

25 (vi) engages in conduct which results in the death or serious bodily
26 injury of another person. Serious bodily injury is defined as bodily 27 injury that involves a substantial risk of death, unconsciousness,

2 of the function of a bodily member, organ or mental faculty.

3 b. Such report shall include, but not be limited to, detailed circum-
4 stances of every incident, the age, race, sex, sexual orientation,
5 gender, gender identity or expression, and ethnicity of all persons
6 engaging in the use of force or suffering such injury.

7 c. Any police department or sheriff's office, or the division of state 8 police that fails to make a report required pursuant to this subdivision
9 shall be subject to the withholding of ten percent of any state funding 10 due to such department or office, or the division of state police until 11 such report has been submitted.

12 § 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 13 have become a law.
