AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to developing grow your own initiatives at school districts, boards of cooperative educational services and higher education institutions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 3039 to read as follows:

§ 3039. Grow your own initiative. 1. The commissioner, in consultation with the department of labor, chancellor of the state university of New York and chancellor of the city university of New York, shall develop guidelines for school districts, boards of cooperative educational services and institutions of higher education to use to develop grow your own initiatives aimed at attracting underrepresented candidates into the teaching profession. Such guidelines shall include but not be limited to:

(a) Efforts for local recruitment of underrepresented candidates, including those who are current teaching assistants, paraeducators, and current students;

(b) Initiatives aimed at creating an early recruitment pipeline beginning at the middle and high school level;

(c) Partnerships between school districts, community-based organizations, educator preparation institutions and institutions of higher education to encourage and support underrepresented candidates to enter and remain in the teaching profession; and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
