of subdivisions two through five, seven, seven-a, eight, twelve or fourteen through [seventeen] eighteen of this section shall be subject to a 3 civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received in connection with such violation. Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the state oversight body with jurisdiction over such person. A state 7 oversight body acting pursuant to its jurisdiction, may, in lieu of a 8 civil penalty, with respect to a violation of subdivisions two through 9 five, seven or eight of this section, refer a violation of any such 10 subdivision to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction such 11 violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor.

- § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 2825 of the public authorities law, as amended by chapter 766 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:
- No public officer or employee shall be ineligible for appointment as a trustee or member of the governing body of a state or local authority, as defined in section two of this chapter, and any public officer or employee may accept such appointment and serve as such trustee or member without forfeiture of any other public office or position of public employment by reason thereof. Provided, no statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the legislature, legislative employee or political party chairman as defined in sections seventy-three and seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall receive compensation for legal fees, consulting, or any other contractual expenditure for services, whether actually performed or not, from a state or local authority if such statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the legislature, legislative employee or political party chairman: (i) is directly contracted by a state or local authority for the related services; (ii) owns or controls directly or indirectly ten per centum or more of stock in a corporation or that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services; or (iii) owns or controls ten per centum or more of the capital, profits, or beneficial interest in a firm or association that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services.
- § 3. Section 801 of the general municipal law, as amended by chapter 1043 of the laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:
- 37 § 801. Conflicts of interest prohibited. Except as provided in section 38 eight hundred two of this chapter, (1) no municipal officer or employee shall have an interest in any contract with the municipality of which he 39 an officer or employee, when such officer or employee, individually 40 41 or as a member of a board, has the power or duty to (a) negotiate, 42 prepare, authorize or approve the contract or authorize or approve payment thereunder (b) audit bills or claims under the contract, or (c) 43 44 appoint an officer or employee who has any of the powers or duties set 45 forth above [and], (2) no chief fiscal officer, treasurer, or his deputy 46 or employee, shall have an interest in a bank or trust company desig-47 nated as a depository, paying agent, registration agent or for investment of funds of the municipality of which he is an officer or employee, 48 and (3) no municipal officer shall receive compensation for legal fees, 49 50 consulting, or any other contractual expenditure for services, whether 51 actually performed or not, from a state or local authority if such 52 municipal officer: (a) is directly contracted by a state or local 53 authority for the related services, (b) owns or controls directly or 54 indirectly ten percent or more of stock in a corporation that is contracted by a state or local authority for the related services, or 55 (c) owns or controls ten percent or more of the capital, profits, or
