AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to third-party delivery services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 391-v to read as follows:
- § 391-v. Third-party food delivery agreements. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
- (a) "Agreement" means a written contractual agreement between a food 5 service establishment and a third-party food delivery service authoriz-7 ing the inclusion of the food service establishment's products on the third-party food delivery platform.

the delivery of an order of such products, on a third-party food delivery platform without a valid agreement with the food service establishment authorizing the inclusion of their products on such platform.

- (b) An agreement executed in accordance with this section shall not include a provision, clause, or covenant that requires a food service establishment to indemnify a third-party food delivery service, any independent contractor acting on behalf of the third-party food delivery service, or any registered agent of the third-party food delivery service, for any damages or harm by an act or omission occurring after the food service establishment's product leaves the place of business of the food service establishment. To the extent an agreement contains such a provision, such provision shall be deemed void and unenforceable.
- (c) A food service establishment included on a third-party food delivery platform in violation of this section shall have the right to bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for damages, penalties as set forth in this section, and injunctive relief. Such court, in its discretion, may also award reasonable court costs and attorneys' fees.
- (d) Any person that violates any provision of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars per violation.

  Each day a food service establishment is included on a third-party food delivery platform and each food service establishment included on a third-party food delivery platform shall be considered a separate violation.
- 24 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 25 have become a law.
