STATE OF NEW YORK

1830

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 16, 2021

Introduced by Sens. SKOUFIS, BIAGGI, KAVANAGH, RIVERA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to conducting investigations into the administration and enforcement of the New York state uniform fire prevention and building code and the New York state energy conservation construction code

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 3 and 4 of section 381 of the executive law, 2 as added by chapter 707 of the laws of 1981, are amended to read as 3 follows:

4 3. a. On and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred eighty-5 five, the secretary shall have power to investigate and conduct hearings б relative to whether administration and enforcement of the uniform fire 7 prevention and building code complies with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this section. At least ten days 8 written notice of any such hearing shall be provided to the elective or 9 10 appointive chief executive officer or, if there be none, the chairman of 11 the legislative body of the local government or county whose adminis-12 tration and enforcement of the uniform code is at issue.

13 b. If the secretary receives from any county, official notice, in the form of a resolution, approved by a majority vote by the county legisla-14 ture, board of supervisors, or board of legislatures and then approved 15 16 by the county executive, where the county has a county executive, which 17 explains the basis of the request, that a local government within the 18 county is not providing administration and enforcement of the uniform 19 fire prevention and building code that complies with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the secre-20 21 tary shall investigate and may conduct hearings in accordance with the 22 provisions of this subdivision. The secretary shall not begin an inves-

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD04199-01-1

S. 1830

1	tigation into a local government under this paragraph unless the local
1 2	government received a copy of the official notice and has had one month
3	to respond to the official notice and submit such response to the secre-
4	tary.
5	4. If the secretary determines that a local government has failed to
6	administer and enforce the uniform fire prevention and building code in
7	accordance with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivi-
8	sion one of this section, the secretary shall take any of the following
9	actions, either individually or in combination in any sequence:
9 10
11 12	local government with the standards for administration and enforcement of the uniform code.
13	b. The secretary may ask the attorney general to institute in the name
14	of the secretary an action or proceeding seeking appropriate legal or
15	equitable relief to require such local government to administer and
16	enforce the uniform code.
17	c. [the] The secretary may designate the county in which such local
18	government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such
19	local government. In the case of such designation, the provisions of
20	subdivision five of this section shall apply.
21	d. The secretary may, in the place and stead of the local government, administer and enforce the uniform code in accordance with the minimum
22	administer and enforce the uniform code in accordance with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this section. In
23
24
25	apply. e. If the secretary finds that the local government is incapable of or
26 27	e. If the secretary finds that the local government is incapable of or unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the
28	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local
28 29	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which
28 29 30	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that
28 29 30 31	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform
28 29 30 31 32	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county
28 29 30 31 32 33	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the
28 29 30 31 32 33 34	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities.
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows:
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38	<pre>unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39	<pre>unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41	<pre>unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement, the local govern- secretary for uniform</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42	<pre>unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement, the local govern- ment shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the secretary that the</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43	<pre>unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement, the local govern- ment shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the secretary that the conditions which led to its prior failure to provide administration and</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44	<pre>unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement, the local govern- ment shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the secretary that the conditions which led to its prior failure to provide administration and enforcement of the uniform fire prevention and building code that</pre>
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement, the local govern- ment shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the secretary that the conditions which led to its prior failure to provide administration and enforcement of the uniform fire prevention and building code that complies with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement, the local govern- ment shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the secretary that the conditions which led to its prior failure to provide administration and enforcement of the uniform fire prevention and building code that complies with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision one of this section are no longer present and that it will be able to
28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45	unwilling to administer and enforce the uniform code pursuant to the minimum standards and the secretary's investigation of such local government was initiated by an official notice from the county in which such local government is located, and if the county has requested that the secretary designate the county to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government, the secretary shall designate the county in which such local government is located to administer and enforce the uniform code in such local government unless the secretary finds that the county would be incapable of assuming the responsibilities. § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 381 of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph e to read as follows: e. After at least eighteen months from such designation, the local government may petition the secretary to reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement. To reassume authority for uniform fire prevention and building code enforcement, the local govern- ment shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the secretary that the conditions which led to its prior failure to provide administration and enforcement of the uniform fire prevention and building code that complies with the minimum standards promulgated pursuant to subdivision

2