3. Extrajudicial consents. (a) Whenever a consent is not executed or acknowledged before a judge or surrogate pursuant to subdivision two of this section such consent shall become irrevocable [~~forty-five~~ ten] days after the execution of the consent unless written notice of revocation thereof is received by the court in which the adoption proceeding is to be commenced within said [~~forty-five~~ ten] days.

(b) Notwithstanding that such written notice is received within said [~~forty-five~~ ten] days, the notice of revocation shall be given effect only if the adoptive parents fail to oppose such revocation, as provided in subdivision six of this section, or, if they oppose such revocation and the court as provided in subdivision six of this section has determined that the best interests of the child will be served by giving force and effect to such revocation.

4. (a) In any case where a consent is not executed or acknowledged before a judge or surrogate pursuant to subdivision two of this section, the consent shall state, in conspicuous print of at least eighteen point type:

(i) the name and address of the court in which the adoption proceeding has been or is to be commenced; and

(ii) that the consent may be revoked within [~~forty-five~~ ten] days of the execution of the document and where the consent is not revoked within said [~~forty-five~~ ten] days no proceeding may be maintained by the parent for the return of the custody of the child; and

(iii) that such revocation must be in writing and received by the court where the adoption proceeding is to be commenced within [~~forty-five~~ ten] days of the execution of said consent; and

(iv) that, if the adoptive parents contest the revocation, timely notice of the revocation will not necessarily result in the return of the child to the parent's custody, and that the rights of the parent to custody of the child shall not be superior to those of the adoptive parents but that a hearing will be required before a judge pursuant to the provisions of this section to determine: (1) whether the notice of revocation was timely and properly given; and if necessary, (2) whether the best interests of the child will be served by: (A) returning custody of the child to the parent; or (B) by continuing the adoption proceeding commenced by the adoptive parents; or (C) by disposition other than adoption by the adoptive parents; or (D) by placement of the child with an authorized agency, and if any such determination is made, the court shall make such disposition of the custody of the child as will best serve the interests of the child; and

(v) that the parent has the right to legal representation of the parent's own choosing; the right to obtain supportive counseling and may

1 have the right to have the court appoint an attorney pursuant to section
2 two hundred sixty-two of the family court act, section four hundred 3 seven of the surrogate's court procedure act, or section thirty-five of 4 the judiciary law.

5 (b) Such consent shall be executed or acknowledged before a notary
6 public or other officer authorized to take proof of deeds.

7 (c) A copy of such consent shall be given to such parent upon the 8 execution thereof. The consent shall include the following statement:

9 "I, (name of consenting parent), this ____ day of _____, _____,
10 have received a copy of this consent. (Signature of consenting parent)".
11 Such consenting parent shall so acknowledge the delivery and the date of 12 the delivery in writing on the consent.

13 (d) The adoptive parent may commence the adoption proceeding in a 14 court of competent jurisdiction other than the court named in the 15 consent provided that such commencement is initiated more than [~~forty-~~

17 not revive, extend or toll the period for revocation of a consent pursu-18 ant to this section.

19 (a) A parent may revoke his consent to adoption only by giving notice,
20 in writing, of such revocation, no later than [~~forty-five~~] ~~ten~~ days 21 after the execution of the consent, or twenty days after the receipt of 22 a notice of denial, withdrawal or removal pursuant to paragraph (a) of 23 subdivision four of section seventeen hundred twenty-five of the surro-24 gate's court procedure act, whichever is later, to the court in which 25 the adoption proceeding has been or is to be commenced. Such notice
26 shall set forth the name and address of the court in which the adoption 27 proceeding is to be commenced, the address of the parent and may, in 28 addition, set forth the name and address of the attorney for the parent.

29 If, within [~~forty-five~~] ~~ten~~ days of the execution of the consent, the 30 court has received such notice of revocation, the court shall promptly 31 notify the adoptive parents and their attorney, by certified mail, of 32 the receipt by the court of such notice of revocation.

36 § 4. Subdivision 6 of section 374 of the social services law, as 37 amended by chapter 305 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as 38 follows:

39 6. An authorized agency, as defined in paragraphs (a) and (c) of 40 subdivision ten of section three hundred seventy-one of this title, may 41 charge or accept a fee or other compensation to or from a person or 42 persons with whom it has placed out a child, for the reasonable and 43 necessary expenses of such placement; and no agency, association, corpo-
44 ration, institution, society or organization, except such an authorized 45 agency, and no person may or shall request, accept or receive any 46 compensation or thing of value, directly or indirectly, in connection
47 with the placing out or adoption of a child or for assisting a birth
48 parent, relative or guardian of a child in arranging for the placement
49 of the child for the purpose of adoption; and no person may or shall pay 50 or give to any person or to any agency, association, corporation, insti-51 tution, society or organization, except such an authorized agency, any 52 compensation or thing of value in connection with the placing out or 53 adoption of a child or for assisting a birth parent, relative or guardi-54 an of a child in arranging for the placement of the child for the 55 purpose of adoption. The prohibition set forth in this section applies
56 to any adoptive placement activity involving a child born in New York

1 state or brought into this state or involving a New York resident seek-
2 ing to bring a child into New York state for the purpose of adoption.

3 This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the payment of 4 salaries or other compensation by an authorized agency to the officers
5 or employees thereof; nor shall it be construed to prevent the payment 6 by a person with whom a child has been placed out of reasonable and 7 actual medical fees or hospital charges for services rendered in 8 connection with the birth of such child or of other necessary expenses
9 incurred by the birth mother in connection with or as a result of her 10 pregnancy or the birth of the child, or of reasonable and actual nurs-11 ing, medical or hospital fees for the care of such child, if such 12 payment is made to the physician, nurse or hospital who or which 13 rendered the services or to the birth mother of the child, or to prevent 14 the receipt of such payment by such physician, nurse, hospital or birth
15 mother. This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the payment 16 by an adoptive parent, as defined in section one hundred nine of the 17 domestic relations law, of the birth mother's reasonable and actual 18 expenses for housing, maternity clothing, clothing for the child and 19 transportation for a reasonable period not to exceed [~~sixty~~] one hundred 20 eighty days prior to the birth and the later of thirty days after the 21 birth or thirty days after the parental consent to the adoption, unless 22 a court determines, in writing, that exceptional circumstances exist
23 which require the payment of the birth mother's expenses beyond the time 24 periods stated in this sentence; provided, however, that any such 25 payments made to the birth mother shall not exceed ten thousand dollars.

26 This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the payment by an 27 adoptive parent, as defined in section one hundred nine of the domestic 28 relations law, of reasonable and actual legal fees charged for consulta-29 tion and legal advice, preparation of papers and representation and 30 other legal services rendered in connection with an adoption proceeding
31 or of necessary disbursements incurred for or in an adoption proceeding.
32 No attorney or law firm shall serve as the attorney for, or provide any 33 legal services to both the birth parent and adoptive parent in regard to 34 the placing out of a child for adoption or in an adoption proceeding. No 35 attorney or law firm shall serve as the attorney for, or provide any 36 legal services to, both an authorized agency and adoptive parent or both 37 an authorized agency and birth parent where the authorized agency
38 provides adoption services to such birth parent or adoptive parent, 39 where the authorized agency provides foster care for the child, or where 40 the authorized agency is directly or indirectly involved in the placing 41 out of such child for adoption.

42 § 5. Paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) of subdivision 4 of section 382 of 43 the social services law, paragraphs (e) and (f) as amended by chapter

45 the laws of 1978, are amended to read as follows:

46 (e) [~~will comply with section three hundred seventy-three,~~
47 ~~(f)~~] will supervise the care and training of such child and cause it 48 to be visited at least annually by a responsible agent of the licensee; 49 and

50 [~~(g)~~] (f) will make to the department such reports as it from time to 51 time may require.

52 § 6. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 53 have become a law.
