AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to providing fresh produce to food deserts in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 16 of the agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new subdivision 52 to read as follows:

52. (a) Establish a program in the state to purchase fresh produce from farms located in the state utilizing all monies appropriated to such program and distribute such fresh produce in areas of the state determined by the commissioner to be food deserts. The commissioner shall promulgate for such program:

(i) eligibility and application criteria for individuals in areas in the state designated as food deserts to receive fresh produce pursuant to the program;

(ii) eligibility and application criteria for farms in the state to register as vendors to expedite the acquisition and distribution of fresh produce from such farms;

(iii) criteria that promotes opportunities for market participation by farmers from under-represented communities, including but not limited to farmers who are black, indigenous, or from communities of color. The program shall promote a consistent demand of products and services from under-represented farmers, including opportunities for farmers who are black, indigenous, or from communities of color to re-establish farm ownership.

(b) As used in this subdivision "food desert" shall have the same meaning as defined by the United States department of agriculture. For the purposes of the program established pursuant to paragraph (a) of
