AN ACT to extend certain provisions relating to emergency medical treatment to individuals and non-profit organizations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary, the provisions under section 3000-a of the public health law shall be extended to any individual or non-profit organization who voluntarily and without expectation of monetary compensation renders first aid or emergency treatment to an individual who is suffering and/or has been infected with coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19).

2 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
