1 any benefit under the provisions of this article shall pay a civil penalty in an amount equal to the greater of one hundred dollars or fifteen percent of the total benefit determined pursuant to this 4 section. The penalties collected hereunder shall be deposited in the fund. The penalties assessed under this subdivision shall apply and be assessed for any benefits paid under federal unemployment and extended unemployment programs administered by the department in the same manner provided in this article. The penalties in this section shall be in addition to any penalties imposed under this chapter or any state or federal criminal statute. No penalties or interest assessed pursuant to this section may be deducted or withheld from benefits.

 $\left[\frac{(5)}{(5)}\right]$ (a) Upon a determination based upon a willful false stateor representation becoming final through exhaustion of appeal rights or failure to exhaust hearing rights, the commissioner may recover the amount found to be due by commencing a civil action, or by filing with the county clerk of the county where the claimant resides the final determination of the commissioner or the final decision by an administrative law judge, the appeal board, or a court containing the amount found to be due including interest and civil penalty. The commissioner may only make such a filing with the county clerk when:

- The claimant has responded to requests for information prior to a determination and such requests for information notified the claimant of his or her rights to a fair hearing as well as the potential consequences of an investigation and final determination under this section including the notice required by subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (b) this subdivision. Additionally if the claimant requested a fair hearing or appeal subsequent to a determination, that the claimant was present either in person or through electronic means at such hearing, or subsequent appeal from which a final determination was rendered;
- (ii) The commissioner has made efforts to collect on such final determination; and
 - (iii) The commissioner has sent a notice, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subdivision, of intent to docket such final determination by first class or certified mail, return receipt requested, ten days prior to the docketing of such determination.
- (b) The notice required in subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall include the following:
- (i) That the commissioner intends to docket a final determination against such claimant as a judgment;
 - (ii) The total amount to be docketed; and
- (iii) Conspicuous language that reads as follows: "Once entered, judgment is good and can be used against you for twenty years, and your money, including a portion of your paycheck and/or bank account, may be taken. Also, a judgment will hurt your credit score and can affect your ability to rent a home, find a job, or take out a loan."
- $[\frac{(6)}{(1)}]$ (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, throughout the duration of the state disaster emergency declared by executive order number two hundred two and any further amendments or modifications thereto, the penalties and requirements of [subdivisions] subdivision one[7 two, and three] of this section shall not be applicable to claimants otherwise entitled to receive benefits under this article.
- § 2. Section one of this act shall apply to all false statements and representations determined on or after the effective date of this act and all forfeited effective days determined prior to such effective date shall remain in full force and effect for two years from the expiration of the initial determination. For purposes of applying such forfeited
