IN SENATE

January 20, 2021

Introduced by Sen. KAVANAGH -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to requiring the disclosure of lead-based paint test reports in real estate transactions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and 1 2 declares that lead poisoning of children persists as one of the most prevalent and preventable environmental diseases in New York State. 3 4 Nearly 100,000 children were newly identified with levels of lead in their blood at five micrograms per deciliter (mcg/dL) in New York state 5 between 2011 and 2015. Medical research indicates that children can б suffer permanent brain damage at blood levels even lower than 5mcg/dL, 7 8 and that there is no level of lead ingestion that is without adverse 9 The predominant cause of lead poisoning in young children is impact. 10 the ingestion of lead particles from deteriorating or abraded lead-based 11 paint from older and poorly maintained residences. Although New York state banned the sale of lead-based paint in 1970, (1.1970, ch. 338) 74% 12 13 of New York's housing stock was constructed prior to 1970 and lead-based 14 paint was available outside of the state until 1978. New York state has 15 both the nation's greatest number (over 4 million units), the highest percentage (55.08%) of pre-1960 and pre-1950 (41.0%) housing, and the 16 oldest housing inventory among the fifty states. At least ninety percent 17 of lead-based paint still exists in occupied housing built before 1960. 18 19 New York state's older housing stock places residents at great risk of 20 exposure to lead hazards, with low-income children living in older hous-21 ing having the highest risk of lead poisoning. Knowledge of lead-based 22 paint hazards, their control, mitigation, abatement, and risk avoidance 23 is not sufficiently widespread. In addition, while federal law requires 24 the disclosure by sellers of real property of knowledge of the existence of lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards, and encourages poten-1 tial buyers to conduct inspections for lead-based paint, these mech-2 anisms neither mandate that such inspections take place either by sell-3 4 buyers. This gap in disclosure requirements results in ers or 5 residential property being transferred without any knowledge of the potential for such property to cause lead poisoning and the attendant б 7 liabilities. 8 Local county health departments lack sufficient information as to 9 which housing contains lead-based paint and the locations of such leadbased paint, resulting in less cost-effective prevention of lead poison-10 ing, avoidable harm to children's health, and wasted public resources. 11 The purposes of this act are to assure that properties that have not 12 13 been previously tested for lead-based paint are not simply transferred 14 to new owners without knowledge of whether there is lead-based paint 15 present, and to better utilize the existing federal laws that mandate 16 disclosure of lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards and to aid 17 in the prevention of lead poisoning. This act is not intended to and does not diminish the responsibility of buyers to carefully examine the 18 property which they intend to purchase and public records pertaining to 19 20 the property. This act is not intended to and does not limit existing 21 responsibilities by a seller, buyer or agent concerning the condition of 22 the property or potential liabilities or remedies at law, statute or in 23 equity. 24 This act will significantly improve the transfer process and better serve the interests of all parties to a home purchase. It will increase 25 26 clarity regarding the nature of the property and will provide greater 27 certainty to contracts entered into by better informed buyers and sell-28 ers. As well, it will provide incentive to owners to voluntarily test 29 their property prior to sale. 30 § 2. The real property law is amended by adding a new article 16 to 31 read as follows: 32 ARTICLE 16 33 LEAD-BASED PAINT DISCLOSURE ACT 34 Section 520. Short title. 35 521. Definitions. 36 522. Inspection of residential real property for lead-based 37 paint prior to transfer of title. 38 523. Duty of agent. 524. Liability. 39 40 § 520. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as 41 the "lead-based paint disclosure act". 42 § 521. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms shall 43 have the following meanings: 44 1. "Agent" shall mean a person who is licensed as a real estate broker 45 or a real estate salesperson pursuant to section four hundred forty-a of 46 this chapter and acting in a fiduciary capacity. 47 2. "Binding contract of sale" shall mean a real estate purchase 48 contract or offer that would, upon signing by the seller and subject to 49 satisfaction of any contingencies, require the buyer to accept a trans-50 fer of title. 3. "Broker" shall have the same meaning as "real estate broker" 51 defined by section four hundred forty of this chapter. 52 53 4. "Buyer" shall mean any entity that enters into a real estate 54 purchase contract, including but not limited to individuals, partnerships, corporations, trusts, government agencies, housing agencies, 55

56 Indian tribes, and nonprofit organizations.

5. "Lead-based paint" shall mean paint or other similar surface coat-1 2 ing material containing 1.0 milligrams of lead per square centimeter or 3 greater, as determined by laboratory analysis of paint samples with all 4 layers of paint present, or by an x-ray fluorescence analyzer. If an 5 x-ray fluorescence analyzer is used, readings shall be corrected for б substrate bias when necessary as specified by the performance characteristic sheets released by the United States environmental protection 7 8 agency and the United States department of housing and urban development 9 for the specific x-ray fluorescence analyzer used. X-ray fluorescence 10 readings shall be classified as positive, negative or inconclusive in 11 accordance with the United States department of housing and urban development guidelines for the evaluation and control of lead-based paint 12 hazards in housing (July 2012) or successor guidelines, and the perform-13 14 ance characteristic sheets released by the United States environmental protection agency and the United States department of housing and urban 15 16 development for the specific x-ray fluorescence analyzer used. X-ray 17 fluorescence readings that fall within the inconclusive zone, as determined by the performance characteristic sheets, shall be confirmed by 18 laboratory analysis of paint chips, results shall be reported in milli-19 20 grams of lead per square centimeter and the measure of such laboratory 21 analysis shall be definitive. If laboratory analysis is used to determine lead content, results shall be reported in milligrams of lead per 22 square centimeter. Where the surface area of a paint chip sample cannot 23 be accurately measured or if an accurately measured paint chip sample 24 25 cannot be removed, a laboratory analysis may be reported in percent by 26 weight. In such case, lead-based paint shall mean any paint or other 27 similar surface-coating material containing more than 0.009 percent of metallic lead, based on the non-volatile content of the paint or other 28 29 similar surface-coating material. In the event that the United States 30 environmental protection agency or a successor agency, or the United 31 States department of housing and urban development or a successor agen-32 cy, or a department or agency of the state of New York that has obtained 33 applicable authorization pursuant to 40 C.F.R. part 745 subpart Q or successor regulation, adopts more stringent definitions of lead-based 34 35 paint, such more stringent definitions shall apply for the purposes of 36 this article. 37 6. "Real estate purchase contract" shall mean any of the following: 38 (a) a contract which provides for the purchase and sale or exchange of 39 residential real property; 40 (b) a lease with an option to purchase residential real property; 41 (c) a lease-with-obligation-to-purchase agreement for residential real 42 property; or 43 (d) an installment land sale contract for residential real property. "Residential real property" shall mean real property improved by a 44 7. 45 residential dwelling erected prior to the year nineteen hundred seven-46 ty-eight. 8. "Residential dwelling" shall mean a single-family dwelling, includ-47 48 ing attached structures such as porches and stoops, or a single-family dwelling unit within a structure that contains more than one separate 49 residential dwelling unit, used or occupied, or designed to be used or 50 51 occupied, wholly or partly, as the home or residence of one or more persons whether or not it was or will be occupied. 52 53 9. "Seller" shall mean any entity that intends to engage in the trans-54 fer of title to a buyer of residential real property, in whole or in part, including but not limited to individuals, partnerships, corpo-55 56 rations, trusts, government agencies, housing agencies, Indian tribes,

1	mortgage banker, lender, and nonprofit organizations. The term "seller"
2	also shall mean an entity that transfers shares in a cooperatively owned
3	project.
4	10. "Test for lead-based paint" shall mean a test for the presence of
5	lead-based paint that has been conducted through both a lead hazard risk
6	assessment and a lead-based paint inspection as defined in 40 C.F.R.
7	745.103, 24 C.F.R. 35.86, and the United States department of housing
8	and urban development guidelines for the evaluation and control of lead-
9	based paint hazards in housing (July 2012), or successor regulations and
10	guidelines, and a report prepared indicating the results of such test,
11	including the locations where tests were performed for lead-based paint
12	and lead-based paint hazards and the readings of all such tests. Such
13	test shall not be valid unless performed by a person accredited pursuant
14	to: (a) certification to conduct lead hazard risk assessment and
15	inspections by the United States environmental protection agency pursu-
16	ant to 40 C.F.R. 745.226(b) or successor regulation; or (b) certif-
17	ication by a state or tribal program authorized by the United States
18	environmental protection agency to certify individuals engaged in lead-
19	based paint activities pursuant to 40 C.F.R. 745.325 or successor regu-
20	lation or eligible to conduct the inspections required by this article.
21	For multifamily housing, the test must be conducted in accordance with
22	the United States department of housing and urban development guidelines
23	for the evaluation and control of lead-based paint hazards in housing
24	(July 2012), or successor guidelines.
25	11. "Transfer of title" shall mean delivery of a properly executed
26	instrument conveying title to residential real property and shall
27	include delivery of a real estate purchase contract that is a lease or
28	installment land sale contract.
29	§ 522. Inspection of residential real property for lead-based paint
30	prior to transfer of title. 1. (a) Effective April first, two thousand
31	twenty-two, every seller of residential real property pursuant to a real
32	estate purchase contract shall deliver to a buyer or buyer's agent prior
33	to the signing by the buyer of a binding contract of sale a certificate
34	that such property has been tested for lead-based paint, and provide the
35	report of such test. A copy of the certificate containing the signature
36	of the seller and any report of a test for lead-based paint shall be
37	attached to the real estate purchase contract. A copy of such certif-
38	icate and report of such test and any subsequent reports of such tests
39	shall be filed with the state department of health in the department of
40	health in the county where such residential real property is located,
41	and such certificate shall as well be filed with the office authorized
42	under section three hundred seventy-two of this chapter to be registrar
43	of title in the county where such real property is located, and such
44	office shall not accept for filing an instrument of transfer of title
45	unless accompanied by such certificate where applicable.
46	(b) The presentation of a certificate of such test by a prior owner of
47	said property and evidence of filing such certificate and report with
48	the department of health in the county where such residential real prop-
49	erty is located, shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions
50	of this subdivision.
51	(c) In the event the seller has not received from a prior owner a
52	certification and report of such tests as set forth in this subdivision,
53	the costs of testing for lead-based paint and the preparation of a
54	certificate and report thereof as provided in this subdivision shall be
55	deductible by the transferor or grantor, up to the amount of five
56	hundred dollars, or in a building with more than one dwelling unit up to

1	four hundred dollars per dwelling unit tested, from the taxes imposed by
2	sections fourteen hundred two and fourteen hundred two-a of the tax law.
3	The transferor or grantor shall not be reimbursed for costs in excess of
4	the total taxes imposed by sections fourteen hundred two and fourteen
5	hundred two-a of the tax law.
6	2. Any provision in a real estate purchase contract or any other docu-
7	ment related to the transfer of title in residential real property that
8	purports to waive any right created under state or federal law for the
9	buyer to conduct a risk assessment or inspection of the property to
10	determine the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint
11	hazards, or any oral agreement that purports to waive such right, is
12	null and void as against public policy, notwithstanding that such waiv-
13	ers might otherwise be permitted by federal law.
14	3. A certificate that such property has been tested for lead-based
15	paint shall not be required in connection with any of the following
16	transfers of residential real property:
17	(a) A transfer to a beneficiary of a deed of trust;
18	(b) A transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a
19	decedent's estate, a guardianship, a conservatorship, or a trust;
20	(c) A transfer from one co-owner to one or more other co-owners;
21	(d) A transfer made to the transferor's spouse or to one or more
22	persons in the lineal consanguinity of one or more of the transferors;
23	(e) A transfer between spouses or former spouses as a result of a
24	decree of divorce, dissolution of marriage, annulment, or legal sepa-
25	ration or as a result of property settlement, agreement incidental to a
26	decree of divorce, dissolution of marriage, annulment or legal sepa-
27	ration;
28	(f) A transfer to or from the state, a political subdivision of the
29	state, or another governmental entity;
30	(g) A transfer by a sheriff;
31	(h) A transfer pursuant to a partition action; or
32	(i) A transfer of an unoccupied dwelling unit or residential property
33	that is to be demolished, provided the dwelling unit or property will
34	remain unoccupied until demolition and lead-safe work practices enumer-
35	ated in 40 C.F.R. 745 and successor regulations, or more protective
36	state law are followed during the demolition.
37	4. Nothing contained in this article is intended to prevent the
38	parties to a contract of sale from entering into agreements of any kind
39	or nature with respect to the physical condition of the property to be
40	sold, including, but not limited to, agreements for the sale of real
41	property "as is".
42	§ 523. Duty of agent. An agent representing a seller of residential
43	real property as a listing broker, or, if the seller is not represented
44	by an agent, the agent representing the buyer of residential real prop-
45	erty and dealing with a prospective seller, shall have the duty to time-
46	ly (in any event, before the buyer signs a binding contract of sale)
