AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to third party statements to the parole board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of 2 section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 130 of the 3 laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

4 (A) Discretionary release on parole shall not be granted merely as a 5 reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while 6 confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability 7 that, if such inmate is released, he or she will live and remain at 8 liberty without violating the law, and that his or her release is not 9 incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the 10 seriousness of his or her crime as to undermine respect for law. In 11 making the parole release decision, the procedures adopted pursuant to 12 subdivision four of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article 13 shall require that the following be considered: (i) the institutional 14 record including program goals and accomplishments, academic achieve-15 ments, vocational education, training or work assignments, therapy and 16 interactions with staff and inmates; (ii) performance, if any, as a 17 participant in a temporary release program; (iii) release plans includ-
18 ing community resources, employment, education and training and support 19 services available to the inmate; (iv) any deportation order issued by 20 the federal government against the inmate while in the custody of the 21 department and any recommendation regarding deportation made by the 22 commissioner of the department pursuant to section one hundred forty-

19 guardian of such person, or the legal representative of any such person.
20 Such statement submitted by the victim or victim's representative may 21 include information concerning threatening or intimidating conduct 22 toward the victim, the victim's representative, or the victim's family, 23 made by the person sentenced and occurring after the sentencing. Such 24 information may include, but need not be limited to, the threatening or 25 intimidating conduct of any other person who or which is directed by the 26 person sentenced. Any statement by a victim or the victim's represen-27 tative made to the board shall be maintained by the department in the 28 file provided to the board when interviewing the inmate in consideration
29 of release. A victim or victim's representative who has submitted a 30 written request to the department for the transcript of such interview 31 shall be provided such transcript as soon as it becomes available. Any 32 person interested in the grant or denial of discretionary release under 33 this subdivision shall have the right to submit a written statement of 34 views in support of or in opposition to the granting of discretionary
