1 (ii) to cooperate with the state and the social services official, in 2 accordance with standards established by regulations of the office of 3 temporary and disability assistance consistent with federal law and 4 regulations, in establishing the paternity of a child born out-of-wed-5 lock for whom assistance under this title is being applied for or 6 received, in their efforts to locate any absent parent and in obtaining 7 support payments or any other payments or property due such person and 8 due each child for whom assistance under this title is being applied for 9 or received, except that an applicant or recipient shall not be required
10 to cooperate in such efforts in cases in which the social services offi-
11 cial has determined, in accordance with criteria, including the best 12 interests of the child, as established by regulations of the office of 13 temporary and disability assistance consistent with federal law and 14 regulations, that such applicant or recipient has good cause to refuse 15 to cooperate. Each social services district shall inform applicants for 16 and recipients of safety net assistance required to cooperate with the 17 state and local social services officials pursuant to the provisions of 18 this paragraph, that where a proceeding to establish paternity has been 19 filed, and the allegation of paternity has been denied by the respond-20 ent, there shall be a stay of all paternity proceedings and related 21 social services district proceedings until sixty days after the birth of 22 the child. Such applicants and recipients shall also be informed that 23 public assistance and care shall not be denied during a stay on the 24 basis of refusal to cooperate pursuant to the provisions of this para-25 graph[+]; and

26 (iii) when the applicant or recipient has established good cause to 27 refuse to cooperate, the social services district shall take no action 28 to establish paternity or a child support order.

29 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
