vacate judgment; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new 2 section 440.11 to read as follows:

3 § 440.11 Motion to vacate judgment; change in the law.

4 1. At any time after the entry of a judgment obtained at trial or by 5 plea, the court in which it was entered may, upon motion of the appli-6 cant, vacate such judgment upon the ground that:

7 (a) The applicant was convicted of any offense in the state of New 8 York which has been subsequently decriminalized and is thus a legal 9 nullity.

10 (b) There has been a change, whether substantive or procedural, in the 11 law or laws applied in the process leading to the applicant's conviction 12 where sufficient reason exists to allow retroactive application of the 13 changed legal standard.

14 2. If the court grants a motion under this section, it must vacate the 15 judgment on the merits, dismiss the accusatory instrument, seal the 16 judgment, and may take such additional action as is appropriate in the 17 circumstances.

sion 1 as amended by section 3 of part 00 of chapter 55 of the laws of 2019, subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (i) and paragraph (j) of subdivision 1 and subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 131 of the laws of 2019, paragraph (k) of subdivision 1 as added by chapter 132 of the laws of 2019, and subdivision 9 as added by section 4 of part 00 of chapter 55 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 440.10 Motion to vacate judgment.

1. At any time after the entry of a judgment obtained at trial or by plea, the court in which it was entered may, upon motion of the [~~defendant~~] applicant, vacate such judgment upon the ground that:

(a) The court did not have jurisdiction of the action or of the person of the [~~defendant~~] applicant; or

(b) The judgment was procured by duress, misrepresentation or fraud on the part of the court or a prosecutor or a person acting for or in behalf of a court or a prosecutor; or

(c) [~~Material evidence~~] Evidence adduced at a trial resulting in the judgment or that was relied upon by any party as a basis for a plea agreement was false [~~and was, prior to the entry of the judgment, known by the prosecutor or by the court to be false~~]; or

(d) [~~Material evidence~~] Evidence adduced by the people at a trial resulting in the judgment or that was relied upon by any party as a basis for a plea agreement was procured in violation of the [~~defendant's~~] applicant's rights under the constitution of this state or of the United States; or

(e) During the proceedings resulting in the judgment, the [~~defendant~~] applicant, by reason of mental disease or defect, was incapable of understanding or participating in such proceedings; or

(f) Improper [~~and prejudicial~~] conduct not appearing in the record occurred during a trial resulting in the judgment which conduct, if it had appeared in the record, would have [~~required~~] made possible a reversal of the judgment upon an appeal therefrom; or

(g) New evidence has been discovered [~~since the entry of a judgment based upon a verdict of guilty after trial, which could not have been produced by the defendant at the trial even with due diligence on his part and which~~] or become available that, when viewed alone or with other evidence, is of such character as to create a reasonable probability that had such evidence been received at the trial or discovered prior to trial or plea agreement that the verdict or plea would have been more favorable to the [~~defendant; provided that a motion based upon such ground must be made with due diligence after the discovery of such alleged new evidence~~] applicant. Types of new evidence shall include, but not be limited to newly available forensic evidence or evidence that has either been repudiated by the expert who originally provided the opinion at a hearing or trial or that has been undermined by later scientific research or technological advances; or

(g-1) [~~Forensic DNA~~] In cases involving the forensic testing of evidence performed since the entry of a judgment, [~~(1) in the case of a defendant convicted after a guilty plea, the court has determined that the defendant has demonstrated a substantial probability that the defendant was actually innocent of the offense of which he or she was convicted, or (2) in the case of a defendant convicted after a trial,~~] the court has determined that there exists a reasonable probability that the verdict or plea offer would have been more favorable to the [~~defendant~~] applicant, or the applicant would have rejected the plea offer.

(h) The judgment was obtained in violation of a right of the [~~defendant~~] applicant under the constitution of this state or of the United

1 States, including, but not limited to, a judgment entered, whether upon 2 trial or guilty plea, against an applicant who is actually innocent. An 3 applicant is actually innocent where the applicant proves by a prepon-
4 derance of the evidence that no reasonable jury of the applicant's peers
5 would have found the applicant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; or

6 (i) The judgment is a conviction where the [~~arresting charge was under~~ 7 ~~section 240.37 (loitering for the purpose of engaging in a prostitution~~
8 ~~offense, provided that the defendant was not alleged to be loitering for~~ 9 ~~the purpose of patronizing a person for prostitution or promoting pros-~~
10 ~~titution) or 230.00 (prostitution) or 230.03 (prostitution in a school~~
11 ~~zone) of the penal law, and the defendant's~~] applicant's participation 12 in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex trafficking 13 under section 230.34 of the penal law, sex trafficking of a child under 14 section 230.34-a of the penal law, labor trafficking under section
15 135.35 of the penal law, aggravated labor trafficking under section 16 135.37 of the penal law, compelling prostitution under section 230.33 of 17 the penal law, or trafficking in persons under the Trafficking Victims
18 Protection Act (United States Code, title 22, chapter 78); provided that

19 (i) [~~a motion under this paragraph shall be made with due diligence,~~ 20 ~~after the defendant has ceased to be a victim of such trafficking or~~ 21 ~~compelling prostitution crime or has sought services for victims of such~~ 22 ~~trafficking or compelling prostitution crime, subject to reasonable~~ 23 ~~concerns for the safety of the defendant, family members of the defend-~~ 24 ~~ant, or other victims of such trafficking or compelling prostitution~~ 25 ~~crime that may be jeopardized by the bringing of such motion, or for~~ 26 ~~other reasons consistent with the purpose of this paragraph; and~~

27 ~~(ii)~~] official documentation of the [~~defendant's~~] applicant's status
28 as a victim of sex trafficking, labor trafficking, aggravated labor 29 trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons at the 30 time of the offense from a federal, state or local government agency
31 shall create a presumption that the [~~defendant's~~] applicant's partic-
32 ipation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex traf-
33 ficking, labor trafficking, aggravated labor trafficking, compelling 34 prostitution or trafficking in persons, but shall not be required for 35 granting a motion under this paragraph;

36 (ii) a motion under this paragraph, and all pertinent papers and docu-
37 ments, shall be confidential and may not be made available to any person 38 or public or private agency except when specifically authorized by the 39 court; and

40 (iii) when a motion is filed under this paragraph, the court may, upon 41 the consent of the applicant and all of the involved state or local 42 prosecutorial agencies, consolidate into one proceeding a motion to 43 vacate judgments imposed by distinct or multiple criminal courts.

44 (j) The judgment is a conviction for [~~a class A or unclassified~~] any 45 misdemeanor entered prior to the effective date of this paragraph [~~and~~ 46 ~~satisfies the ground prescribed in paragraph (h) of this subdivision~~] 47 that resulted in ongoing collateral consequences, including potential or 48 actual immigration consequences. There shall be a rebuttable presump-
49 tion that a conviction by plea to such an offense was not knowing,
50 voluntary and intelligent, [~~based on ongoing collateral consequences,~~ 51 ~~including potential or actual immigration consequences, and there~~] and 52 thus rendered the plea constitutionally defective pursuant to paragraph 53 (h) of this subdivision. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a
54 conviction by verdict to such an offense constitutes cruel and unusual
55 punishment under section five of article one of the state constitution

1 based on such consequences and thus rendered the verdict constitu-
2 tionally defective pursuant to paragraph (h) of this subdivision; or

3 (j-1) The judgment is a conviction for a class D or E felony entered
4 prior to the effective date of this paragraph for which the sentence
5 imposed was one year, and such sentence resulted in ongoing collateral
6 consequences, including potential or actual immigration consequences.
7 There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a conviction by plea to 8 such an offense was not knowing, voluntary and intelligent, and thus 9 rendered the plea constitutionally defective pursuant to paragraph (h)
10 of this subdivision. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a
11 conviction by verdict to such an offense constitutes cruel and unusual
12 punishment under section five of article one of the state constitution
13 based on such consequences, and thus rendered the verdict constitu-
14 tionally defective pursuant to paragraph (h) of this subdivision; or

15 (k) The judgment occurred prior to the effective date of this para-
16 graph and is a conviction for an offense as defined in subparagraph (i) 17 or (ii) of paragraph (k) of subdivision three of section 160.50 of this 18 part, or a misdemeanor under article two hundred twenty-one of the penal 19 law, in which case the court shall presume that a conviction by plea for 20 the aforementioned offenses was not knowing, voluntary and intelligent 21 if it has severe or ongoing consequences, including but not limited to 22 potential or actual immigration consequences, and thus rendered the plea
23 constitutionally defective pursuant to paragraph (h) of this subdivi-
24 sion; and shall presume that a conviction by verdict for the aforemen-
25 tioned offenses constitutes cruel and unusual punishment under section 26 five of article one of the state constitution, based on those conse-
27 quences, and thus rendered the verdict constitutionally defective pursu-
28 ant to paragraph (h) of this subdivision. The people may rebut these 29 presumptions[-]; or

30 (l) Any offense in the state of New York that an intermediate appel-
31 late court, court of appeals, or United States federal court has deemed 32 in violation of the constitution of this state or of the United States,
33 or any other right under state or federal law.

34 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one, the court [~~must~~] 35 may deny a motion to vacate a judgment when:

36 (a) The ground or issue raised upon the motion was previously deter-37 mined on the merits upon an appeal from the judgment, unless since the 38 time of such appellate determination there has been a retroactively
39 effective change in the law controlling such issue. However, if all of 40 the evidence currently before the court was not duly considered previ-
41 ously by the court, the court shall grant the motion or order the hear-42 ing; or

43 (b) The judgment is, at the time of the motion, appealable or pending 44 on appeal, and sufficient facts appear on the record with respect to the 45 ground or issue raised upon the motion to permit adequate review thereof
46 upon such an appeal unless the issue raised in such a motion is ineffec-
47 tive assistance of counsel. This paragraph shall not apply to a motion 48 under paragraph (i), (j), (k) or (l) of subdivision one of this section; 49 or

50 (c) [~~Although sufficient facts appear on the record of the proceedings~~
51 ~~underlying the judgment to have permitted, upon appeal from such judg-~~
52 ~~ment, adequate review of the ground or issue raised upon the motion, no~~
53 ~~such appellate review or determination occurred owing to the defendant's~~
54 ~~unjustifiable failure to take or perfect an appeal during the prescribed~~
55 ~~period or to his unjustifiable failure to raise such ground or issue~~
56 ~~upon an appeal actually perfected by him, or~~

~~(d)~~ The ground or issue raised relates solely to the validity of the sentence and not to the validity of the conviction. In such case, the court shall deem the motion to have been made pursuant to section 440.20 of this article.

~~[3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one, the court may deny a motion to vacate a judgment when:~~

~~(a) Although facts in support of the ground or issue raised upon the motion could with due diligence by the defendant have readily been made to appear on the record in a manner providing adequate basis for review of such ground or issue upon an appeal from the judgment, the defendant unjustifiably failed to adduce such matter prior to sentence and the ground or issue in question was not subsequently determined upon appeal. This paragraph does not apply to a motion based upon deprivation of the right to counsel at the trial or upon failure of the trial court to advise the defendant of such right, or to a motion under paragraph (i) of subdivision one of this section; or~~

~~(b) The ground or issue raised upon the motion was previously determined on the merits upon a prior motion or proceeding in a court of this state, other than an appeal from the judgment, or upon a motion or proceeding in a federal court, unless since the time of such determination there has been a retroactively effective change in the law controlling such issue; or~~

~~(c) Upon a previous motion made pursuant to this section, the defendant was in a position adequately to raise the ground or issue underlying the present motion but did not do so.]~~

(d) Although the court may deny the motion under any of the circumstances specified in this subdivision, in the interest of justice and for good cause shown it may in its discretion grant the motion if it is otherwise meritorious and vacate the judgment.

~~[4.]~~ 3. If the court grants the motion, it must, except as provided in subdivision ~~[five]~~ four or ~~[six]~~ five of this section, vacate the judgment, and must either:

(a) dismiss and seal the accusatory instrument, or

(b) order a new trial, or

(c) take such other action as is appropriate in the circumstances.

~~[5.]~~ 4. Upon granting the motion upon the ground, as prescribed in paragraph (g) of subdivision one, that newly discovered evidence creates a probability that had such evidence been received at the trial the verdict would have been more favorable to the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant in that the conviction would have been for a lesser offense than the one contained in the verdict, the court may either:

(a) Vacate the judgment and order a new trial; or

(b) With the consent of the people, modify the judgment by reducing it to one of conviction for such lesser offense. In such case, the court must re-sentence the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant accordingly.

~~[6.]~~ 5. If the court grants a motion under ~~[paragraph (i) or]~~ paragraph ~~[(k)]~~ (h), (i), (j), (k) or (l) of subdivision one of this section, it must vacate the judgment ~~[and]~~ on the merits, dismiss the accusatory instrument, seal the judgment, and may take such additional action as is appropriate in the circumstances.

~~[7.]~~ 6. Upon a new trial resulting from an order vacating a judgment pursuant to this section, the indictment is deemed to contain all the counts and to charge all the offenses which it contained and charged at the time the previous trial was commenced, regardless of whether any count was dismissed by the court in the course of such trial, except (a) those upon or of which the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant was acquitted or deemed

1 to have been acquitted, and (b) those dismissed by the order vacating
2 the judgment, and (c) those previously dismissed by an appellate court
3 upon an appeal from the judgment, or by any court upon a previous post-
4 judgment motion.

5 ~~[8-]~~ 7. Upon an order which vacates a judgment based upon a plea of 6 guilty to an accusatory instrument or a part thereof, but which does not 7 dismiss the entire accusatory instrument, the criminal action is, in the 8 absence of an express direction to the contrary, restored to its 9 ~~[prepleading]~~ pre-pleading status and the accusatory instrument is 10 deemed to contain all the counts and to charge all the offenses which it 11 contained and charged at the time of the entry of the plea, except those 12 subsequently dismissed under circumstances specified in paragraphs (b)
13 and (c) of subdivision six. Where the plea of guilty was entered and 14 accepted, pursuant to subdivision three of section 220.30, upon the 15 condition that it constituted a complete disposition not only of the 16 accusatory instrument underlying the judgment vacated but also of one or 17 more other accusatory instruments against the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant then 18 pending in the same court, the order of vacation completely restores 19 such other accusatory instruments; and such is the case even though such 20 order dismisses the main accusatory instrument underlying the judgment.

21 ~~[9-]~~ 8. Upon granting of a motion pursuant to paragraph (j) of subdivi-22 sion one of this section, the court ~~[may]~~ must vacate the judgment and 23 may, in addition to the remedies in subdivision three of this section, 24 either:

25 (a) With the consent of the people, ~~[vacate the judgment or]~~ modify 26 the judgment by reducing it to one of conviction for a lesser offense or 27 allow the applicant to replead to a disposition agreed upon by the 28 parties; or

29 (b) ~~[Vacate the judgment and order a new trial wherein the defendant~~
30 ~~enters]~~ Permit the applicant to enter a plea to the same offense ~~[in~~ 31 ~~order to permit the court to]~~ and resentence the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant 32 in accordance with the amendatory provisions of subdivision one-a of 33 section 70.15 of the penal law.

34 9. Upon granting of a motion pursuant to paragraph j-1 of subdivision 35 one of this section, the court must vacate the judgment and permit the 36 applicant to enter a plea to the same offense in order to permit the 37 court to resentence the applicant to three hundred sixty-four days.

38 10. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the court 39 must order a hearing and address the merits of any claim for relief when 40 the applicant asserts that, in light of all available evidence, there 41 exists a colorable claim that he or she is actually innocent. When the 42 applicant raises an actual innocence claim based on, in whole or part, 43 new evidence of actual innocence, the court may not summarily deny the 44 motion on the ground that the applicant previously moved for relief
45 under this article.

46 § 3. Section 440.20 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 1 as 47 amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:
48 § 440.20 Motion to set aside sentence; by ~~[defendant]~~ applicant.

49 1. At any time after the entry of a judgment, the court in which the 50 judgment was entered may, upon motion of the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant, set 51 aside the sentence upon the ground that it was unauthorized, illegally 52 imposed, exceeded the maximum allowed by law, obtained or imposed in 53 violation of the defendant's constitutional rights, or was otherwise 54 invalid as a matter of law. Where the judgment includes a sentence of 55 death, the court may also set aside the sentence upon any of the grounds 56 set forth in paragraph (b), (c), (f), (g) or (h) of subdivision one of

1 section 440.10 as applied to a separate sentencing proceeding under 2 section 400.27, provided, however, that to the extent the ground or 3 grounds asserted include one or more of the aforesaid paragraphs of 4 subdivision one of section 440.10, the court must also apply [~~subdivi-~~
5 ~~sions~~] subdivision two [~~and three~~] of section 440.10, other than para-6 graph [~~(d)~~] (c) of [~~subdivision two of~~] such [~~section~~] subdivision, in 7 determining the motion. In the event the court enters an order granting 8 a motion to set aside a sentence of death under this section, the court 9 must either direct a new sentencing proceeding in accordance with 10 section 400.27 or, to the extent that the defendant cannot be resen-
11 tenced to death consistent with the laws of this state or the constitu-12 tion of this state or of the United States, resentence the defendant to 13 life imprisonment without parole or to a sentence of imprisonment for 14 the class A-I felony of murder in the first degree other than a sentence 15 of life imprisonment without parole. Upon granting the motion upon any 16 of the grounds set forth in the aforesaid paragraphs of subdivision one 17 of section 440.10 and setting aside the sentence, the court must afford 18 the people a reasonable period of time, which shall not be less than ten 19 days, to determine whether to take an appeal from the order setting
20 aside the sentence of death. The taking of an appeal by the people stays 21 the effectiveness of that portion of the court's order that directs a 22 new sentencing proceeding.

23 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one, the court
24 [~~must~~] may deny such a motion when the ground or issue raised thereupon 25 was previously determined on the merits upon an appeal from the judgment
26 or sentence, unless since the time of such appellate determination there 27 has been a retroactively effective change in the law controlling such 28 issue. However, if all of the evidence currently before the court was 29 not duly considered previously by the court, the court shall not deny 30 the motion to vacate and instead shall order a hearing or grant the 31 motion. Even if the court has already considered all of the evidence 32 currently before the court, the court in the interest of justice and for 33 good cause shown may grant the motion if it is otherwise meritorious.

34 [~~Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one, the court may~~ 35 ~~deny such a motion when the ground or issue raised thereupon was previ-~~
36 ~~ously determined on the merits upon a prior motion or proceeding in a~~
37 ~~court of this state, other than an appeal from the judgment, or upon a~~ 38 ~~prior motion or proceeding in a federal court, unless since the time of~~ 39 ~~such determination there has been a retroactively effective change in~~ 40 ~~the law controlling such issue. Despite such determination, however,~~ 41 ~~the court in the interest of justice and for good cause shown, may in~~ 42 ~~its discretion grant the motion if it is otherwise meritorious.~~

43 4.] An order setting aside a sentence pursuant to this section does 44 not affect the validity or status of the underlying conviction, and 45 after entering such an order the court must resentence the [~~defendant~~]
46 applicant in accordance with the law. The date of such resentencing, 47 following the grant of a motion pursuant to this section, shall control
48 for purposes of determining an applicant's predicate status under para-
49 graph (b) of subdivision one of section 70.04, paragraph (b) of subdivi-
50 sion one of section 70.06, section 70.08, paragraph (b) of subdivision
51 one of section 70.10, and section 70.70 of the penal law.

52 § 4. Section 440.30 of the criminal procedure law, subdivisions 1 and 53 1-a as amended by chapter 19 of the laws of 2012 and the opening para-
54 graph of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 as amended by section 10 of part 55 LLL of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

56 § 440.30 Motion to vacate judgment and to set aside sentence; procedure.

1 1. (a) ~~[A]~~ An application for a motion to vacate a judgment pursuant 2 to section 440.10 or 440.11 of this article and a motion to set aside a 3 sentence pursuant to section 440.20 of this article must be made in 4 writing by the applicant or their counsel to the judge or justice who 5 imposed the original sentence and upon reasonable notice to the people.
6 ~~[Upon the motion, a defendant]~~ If, at the time of such person's request
7 to apply for relief pursuant to this article, the original sentencing
8 judge or justice no longer works in the court in which the original 9 sentence was imposed, then the request shall be randomly assigned to 10 another judge or justice of the court in which the original sentence was 11 imposed.

12 (b) Upon submitting an application for relief under this article, the 13 applicant may request that the court assign him or her an attorney for 14 the preparation of and proceedings on the motion to vacate judgment and 15 to set aside the sentence pursuant to this article. The court shall 16 assign defense counsel if the applicant is indigent or otherwise quali-
17 fies for free representation in accordance with the provisions of subdi-18 vision one of section seven hundred seventeen and subdivision four of 19 section seven hundred twenty-two of the county law and the related 20 provisions of article eighteen-A of such law.

21 (c) Upon making a determination as to assignment of counsel, the court
22 shall also promptly order the disclosure of discovery to the person
23 applying for relief and his or her counsel. The order of disclosure of 24 discovery shall include that:

25 (i) The people produce all items and information that relate to the 26 subject matter of the case and are in the possession, custody and 27 control of the prosecution or persons under their direction or control 28 and make available for inspection any physical evidence secured in 29 connection with the investigation or prosecution of the applicant,
30 including all evidence that would be discoverable pursuant to section 31 245.20 of this part; and

32 (ii) The applicant's prior trial and appellate counsel shall make 33 available to the applicant or his or her counsel their complete files 34 relating to the case; and

35 (iii) Court clerks and probation departments shall make available to 36 the applicant or his or her counsel the court files or probation records 37 pertaining to the case; and

38 (iv) Nothing in this section shall preclude the court from conducting 39 an in camera inspection of evidence and issuing a protective order
40 pursuant to section 245.70 of this part at the request of the prose-41 cution or defense.

42 (v) The discovery order will require that the people and prior defense 43 counsel turn over all relevant discovery to the person applying for 44 relief or their counsel no later than thirty days from the issuance of 45 the court's discovery order.

46 (d) (i) An applicant who is in a position adequately to raise more 47 than one ground should raise every such ground upon which he or she 48 intends to challenge the judgment or sentence. If the motion is based 49 upon the existence or occurrence of facts, the motion papers ~~[must]~~ may 50 contain sworn allegations thereof, whether by the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant
51 or by another person or persons. Such sworn allegations may be based 52 upon personal knowledge of the affiant or upon information and belief, 53 provided that in the latter event the affiant must state the sources of 54 such information and the grounds of such belief. The ~~[defendant]~~ appli-55 cant may further submit documentary evidence or information supporting 56 or tending to support the allegations of the moving papers.

1 (ii) The people may file with the court, and in such case must serve a 2 copy thereof upon the [defendant] applicant or his or her counsel, if 3 any, an answer denying or admitting any or all of the allegations of the 4 motion papers, and may further submit documentary evidence or informa-
5 tion refuting or tending to refute such allegations.

6 (iii) After all papers of both parties have been filed, and after all 7 documentary evidence or information, if any, has been submitted, the 8 court must consider the same for the purpose of ascertaining whether the 9 motion is determinable without a hearing to resolve questions of fact.

10 ~~[(b) In conjunction with the filing or consideration of a motion to~~ 11 ~~vacate a judgment pursuant to section 440.10 of this article by a~~
12 ~~defendant convicted after a trial, in cases where the court has ordered~~ 13 ~~an evidentiary hearing upon such motion, the court may order that the~~ 14 ~~people produce or make available for inspection property in its~~ 15 ~~possession, custody, or control that was secured in connection with the~~ 16 ~~investigation or prosecution of the defendant upon credible allegations~~ 17 ~~by the defendant and a finding by the court that such property, if~~ 18 ~~obtained, would be probative to the determination of defendant's actual~~ 19 ~~innocence, and that the request is reasonable. The court shall deny or~~ 20 ~~limit such a request upon a finding that such a request, if granted,~~ 21 ~~would threaten the integrity or chain of custody of property or the~~ 22 ~~integrity of the processes or functions of a laboratory conducting DNA~~ 23 ~~testing, pose a risk of harm, intimidation, embarrassment, reprisal, or~~ 24 ~~other substantially negative consequences to any person, undermine the~~ 25 ~~proper functions of law enforcement including the confidentiality of~~ 26 ~~informants, or on the basis of any other factor identified by the court~~
27 ~~in the interests of justice or public safety. The court shall further~~ 28 ~~ensure that any property produced pursuant to this paragraph is subject~~
29 ~~to a protective order, where appropriate. The court shall deny any~~ 30 ~~request made pursuant to this paragraph where:~~

31 ~~(i) (1) the defendant's motion pursuant to section 440.10 of this~~ 32 ~~article does not seek to demonstrate his or her actual innocence of the~~ 33 ~~offense or offenses of which he or she was convicted that are the~~ 34 ~~subject of the motion, or (2) the defendant has not presented credible~~
35 ~~allegations and the court has not found that such property, if obtained,~~
36 ~~would be probative to the determination of the defendant's actual inno-~~
37 ~~cence and that the request is reasonable;~~

38 ~~(ii) the defendant has made his or her motion after five years from~~ 39 ~~the date of the judgment of conviction; provided, however, that this~~ 40 ~~limitation period shall be tolled for five years if the defendant is in~~ 41 ~~custody in connection with the conviction that is the subject of his or~~ 42 ~~her motion, and provided further that, notwithstanding such limitation~~
43 ~~periods, the court may consider the motion if the defendant has shown:~~ 44 ~~(A) that he or she has been pursuing his or her rights diligently and~~ 45 ~~that some extraordinary circumstance prevented the timely filing of the~~ 46 ~~motion; (B) that the facts upon which the motion is predicated were~~ 47 ~~unknown to the defendant or his or her attorney and could not have been~~ 48 ~~ascertained by the exercise of due diligence prior to the expiration of~~ 49 ~~the statute of limitations; or (C) considering all circumstances of the~~ 50 ~~case including but not limited to evidence of the defendant's guilt, the~~ 51 ~~impact of granting or denying such motion upon public confidence in the~~ 52 ~~criminal justice system, or upon the safety or welfare of the community,~~
53 ~~and the defendant's diligence in seeking to obtain the requested proper-~~

55 ~~considering the motion;~~

~~(iii) the defendant is challenging a judgment convicting him or her of an offense that is not a felony defined in section 10.00 of the penal law, or~~

~~(iv) upon a finding by the court that the property requested in this motion would be available through other means through reasonable efforts by the defendant to obtain such property.~~

~~1-a.] 2. (a) [(1)] (i) Where the [defendant's] applicant's motion requests the performance of a forensic DNA test on specified evidence, and upon the court's determination that any evidence containing deoxyribonucleic acid ("DNA") was secured in connection with the trial or the plea resulting in the judgment, the court shall grant the application for forensic DNA testing of such evidence [upon its determination that if a DNA test had been conducted on such evidence, and if the results had been admitted in the trial resulting in the judgment, there exists a reasonable probability that the verdict would have been more favorable to the defendant.~~

~~(2) Where the defendant's motion for forensic DNA testing of specified evidence is made following a plea of guilty and entry of judgment thereon convicting him or her of: (A) a homicide offense defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the penal law, any felony sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, a violent felony offense as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, or (B) any other felony offense to which he or she pled guilty after being charged in an indictment or information in superior court with one or more of the offenses listed in clause (A) of this subparagraph, then the court shall grant such a motion upon its determination that evidence containing DNA was secured in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the defendant, and if a DNA test had been conducted on such evidence and the results had been known to the parties prior to the entry of the defendant's plea and judgment thereon, there exists a substantial probability that the evidence would have established the defendant's actual innocence of the offense or offenses that are the subject of the defendant's motion, provided, however, that:~~

~~(i) the court shall consider whether the defendant had the opportunity to request such testing prior to entering a guilty plea, and, where it finds that the defendant had such opportunity and unjustifiably failed to do so, the court may deny such motion; and~~

~~(ii) a court shall deny the defendant's motion for forensic DNA testing where the defendant has made his or her motion more than five years after entry of the judgment of conviction, except that the limitation period may be tolled if the defendant has shown: (A) that he or she has been pursuing his or her rights diligently and that some extraordinary circumstance prevented the timely filing of the motion for forensic DNA testing; (B) that the facts upon which the motion is predicated were unknown to the defendant or his or her attorney and could not have been ascertained by the exercise of due diligence prior to the expiration of this statute of limitations; or (C) considering all circumstances of the case including but not limited to evidence of the defendant's guilt, the impact of granting or denying such motion upon public confidence in the criminal justice system, or upon the safety or welfare of the community, and the defendant's diligence in seeking to obtain the requested property or related relief, the interests of justice would be served by tolling such limitation period].~~

(ii) Where the applicant's motion for relief requests the performance of any other testing of forensic evidence or any physical evidence secured in the case, the judge shall grant the application for testing

1 of such evidence, unless there is no reasonable probability that the 2 testing of this evidence could result in a different or improved outcome
3 for the person applying for relief.

4 (b) (i) In conjunction with the filing of a motion under this subdivi-
5 sion, the court may direct the people to provide the [defendant] appli-6 cant and his or her counsel with information in the possession of the 7 people concerning the current physical location of the specified
8 evidence and if the specified evidence no longer exists or the physical 9 location of the specified evidence is unknown, a representation to that 10 effect and information and documentary evidence in the possession of the 11 people concerning the last known physical location of such specified 12 evidence.

13 (ii) If there is a finding by the court that the specified evidence no 14 longer exists or the physical location of such specified evidence is 15 unknown, [~~such information in and of itself shall not be a factor from~~ 16 ~~which any inference unfavorable to the people may be drawn by the court~~ 17 ~~in deciding a motion under this section]~~ the court shall grant the 18 applicant's motion and vacate the judgment.

19 (iii) The court, on motion of the [defendant] applicant, may also 20 issue a subpoena duces tecum directing a public or private hospital, 21 laboratory or other entity to produce such specified evidence in its 22 possession and/or information and documentary evidence in its possession 23 concerning the location and status of such specified evidence.

24 (c) In response to a motion under this paragraph, upon notice to the 25 parties and to the entity required to perform the search the court may 26 order an entity that has access to the combined DNA index system
27 ("CODIS") or its successor system to compare a DNA profile obtained from 28 probative biological material gathered in connection with the investi-
29 gation or prosecution of the [defendant] applicant against DNA databanks
30 by keyboard searches, or a similar method that does not involve upload-31 ing, upon a court's determination that (1) such profile complies with 32 federal bureau of investigation or state requirements, whichever are 33 applicable and as such requirements are applied to law enforcement agen-
34 cies seeking such a comparison, and that the data meet state DNA index
35 system and/or national DNA index system criteria as such criteria are 36 applied to law enforcement agencies seeking such a comparison and (2) if 37 such comparison had been conducted, [~~and if the results had been admit-~~ 38 ~~ted in the trial resulting in the judgment,~~] a reasonable probability 39 exists that the verdict would have been more favorable to the [defend-40 ant, or in a case involving a plea of guilty, if the results had been 41 available to the defendant prior to the plea, a reasonable probability 42 exists that the conviction would not have resulted] applicant. For 43 purposes of this subdivision, a "keyboard search" shall mean a search of 44 a DNA profile against the databank in which the profile that is searched
45 is not uploaded to or maintained in the databank.

46 [~~2. If it appears by conceded or uncontradicted allegations of the~~ 47 ~~moving papers or of the answer, or by unquestionable documentary proof,~~ 48 ~~that there are circumstances which require denial thereof pursuant to~~ 49 ~~subdivision two of section 440.10 or subdivision two of section 440.20,~~
50 ~~the court must summarily deny the motion. If it appears that there are~~ 51 ~~circumstances authorizing, though not requiring, denial thereof pursuant~~ 52 ~~to subdivision three of section 440.10 or subdivision three of section~~ 53 ~~440.20, the court may in its discretion either (a) summarily deny the~~
54 ~~motion, or (b) proceed to consider the merits thereof.]~~

3. Upon considering the merits of the motion, the court must grant it without conducting a hearing and vacate the judgment or set aside the sentence, as the case may be, if:

(a) The moving papers allege a ground constituting legal basis for the motion; and

(b) Such ground, if based upon the existence or occurrence of facts, is supported by sworn allegations thereof; and

(c) The sworn allegations of fact essential to support the motion are either conceded by the people to be true or are conclusively substantiated by unquestionable documentary proof.

4. Upon considering the merits of the motion, the court may deny it without conducting a hearing if:

(a) The moving papers do not allege any ground constituting legal basis for the motion; or

(b) ~~[The motion is based upon the existence or occurrence of facts and the moving papers do not contain sworn allegations substantiating or tending to substantiate all the essential facts, as required by subdivision one, or~~

~~(c)]~~ An allegation of fact essential to support the motion is conclusively refuted by unquestionable documentary proof; or

~~[(d)]~~ (c) An allegation of fact essential to support the motion (i) is contradicted by a court record or other official document~~[, or is made solely by the defendant and is unsupported by any other affidavit or evidence,]~~ and (ii) under these and all the other circumstances attending the case, there is no reasonable possibility that such allegation is true.

5. If the court does not determine the motion pursuant to subdivisions two, three or four, it must conduct a hearing and make findings of fact essential to the determination thereof. The ~~[defendant]~~ applicant has a right to be present at such hearing but may waive such right in writing. If he or she does not so waive it and if he or she is confined in a prison or other institution of this state, the court must cause him or her to be produced at such hearing.

6. At such a hearing, the ~~[defendant]~~ applicant has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence every fact essential to support the motion. At the hearing, defense counsel shall receive a daily copy of the hearing minutes.

7. Regardless of whether a hearing was conducted, the court, upon determining the motion, must set forth on the record its findings of fact, its conclusions of law and the reasons for its determination.
