Introduced by Sen. BAILEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, the correction law, and the executive law, in relation to work related labor protests not being considered a parole violation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 410.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

3 4. When the court pronounces a sentence of probation or conditional
4 discharge, the court shall provide that work related labor protests
5 shall not be considered a violation of such sentence of probation or 6 conditional discharge.

7 § 2. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 209 to read 8 as follows:

9 § 209. Permitted activities. Where any person is granted presumptive
10 release, parole, conditional release or release to post-release super-11 vision, such person shall not be deemed to be in violation of and the 12 department shall not terminate such granted presumptive release, parole, 13 conditional release or release to post-release supervision solely 14 because such person participated in work related labor protests.

15 § 3. Section 274 of the correction law is amended by adding a new 16 subdivision 11 to read as follows:

17 11. The commission, or any member thereof, shall not determine that a 18 person who has been conditionally released has lapsed into criminal ways 19 or company, or has violated one or more conditions of conditional 20 release because such person participated in work related labor protests.

21 § 4. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 259-t to 22 read as follows:

23 § 259-t. Permitted activities. Where any person is granted presumptive
