  - § 3. Section 340 of the banking law, as amended by chapter 22 of laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:
  - § 340. Doing business without license prohibited. (a) No person or other entity shall engage in the business of making loans in the principal amount of twenty-five thousand dollars or less for any loan to an individual for personal, family, household, or investment purposes and in a principal amount of fifty thousand dollars or less for business and commercial loans, and charge, contract for, or receive a greater rate of interest than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee hereunder except as authorized by this article and without first obtaining a license from the superintendent.
- 53 (b) For the purposes of this section, a person or entity shall be 54 considered as engaging in the business of making loans in New York, and 55 subject to the licensing and other requirements of this article, if it solicits loans in the amounts prescribed by this section within this state and, in connection with such solicitation, makes loans to individuals then resident in this state, except that no person or entity shall be considered as engaging in the business of making loans in this state on the basis of isolated, incidental or occasional transactions which otherwise meet the requirements of this section.

- 6 (c) Nothing in this article shall apply to licensed collateral loan 7 brokers.
- 8 (d) Any person who engages in the business of offering consideration 9 in exchange for a secured interest in all or part of pension proceeds in 10 the possession of a participant, beneficiary, or member of a pension
- 11 plan, program, or system shall be deemed to be engaged in the business
- of making loans and shall be subject to the licensing and other require-
- 13 ments of this article.
- 14 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
