§ 862. Student journalist free speech rights. 1. Except as otherwise provided in section eight hundred sixty-three of this article, a student journalist shall have the right to exercise free speech and of the press in school-sponsored media, regardless of whether the media is supported financially by the educational institution or by use of the facilities of an educational institution or produced in conjunction with a class in which the student is enrolled.

- 2. Subject to section eight hundred sixty-three of this article, the appropriate student journalist shall be responsible for determining the news, opinion, and feature content of school-sponsored media.
- 3. Nothing in this section shall preclude a student media advisor from teaching professional standards of English and journalism to student 12 journalists or from grading the performance of a student in accordance 14 with such standards.
  - 4. There shall be no prior restraint of material prepared for official publications of an educational institution except for the material described in section eight hundred sixty-three of this article.
    - 5. Educational institution administrators shall have the burden of demonstrating justification without undue delay prior to a limitation of student expression under this article.
  - 6. No student media advisor or employee shall be dismissed, suspended, disciplined, reassigned, transferred, or otherwise retaliated against solely for acting to protect a pupil engaged in the conduct authorized under this article; and further no student media advisor or employee shall be dismissed, suspended, disciplined, reassigned, transferred or otherwise retaliated against solely for an action, undertaken in good faith with this article, which results in the prohibition of the publication of speech pursuant to this article.
- 29 7. Political expression by students in school-sponsored media shall 30 not be deemed the use of public funds for political purposes.
  - § 863. Exemptions. Nothing in this article shall impose a duty on educational institution administrators to review school-sponsored media prior to publication. To the extent that an educational institution administrator chooses to engage in pre-publication review, the following forms of expression shall not be protected by this article:
    - 1. Expression that is libelous, slanderous or obscene;
    - 2. Expression that constitutes an unwarranted invasion of privacy;
    - 3. Expression that violates federal or state law; or
  - 4. Expression that incites students to commit an unlawful act where such unlawful act would be both imminent and likely to occur, to violate the policies of the educational institution, or to materially and substantially disrupt the orderly operation of such educational institution.
- 44 8 864. Liability. No expression made by students in the exercise of 45 free speech or freedom of the press protected by this article shall be 46 deemed to be an expression of policy, opinion or position of the educa-47 tional institution, nor shall any such expression be considered to be an 48 endorsement in any way by the educational institution and no educational 49 institution, student media advisor, employee, parent, legal guardian or 50 administrator of an educational institution shall be held liable in any 51 civil or criminal action for any expression made or published by students, except in cases of willful or wanton misconduct. Nothing in 52 53 this section shall be construed to create any private action on behalf of a student other than to seek injunctive relief allowing the publica-54 55 tion of the speech in question.
  - § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
