- 10 § 524-b. Office of the foster care ombudsman. There is hereby estab-11 lished the office of the foster care ombudsman in the office of children and family services. The independent review board described in section 12 13 five hundred twenty-four-h of this subtitle shall appoint the director 14 of the office of the foster care ombudsman, who shall report to the commissioner. The director shall have expertise in the areas of child 15 16 welfare, foster care, dispute resolution and system improvement, specifically in the state of New York, as evidenced by at least ten years of 17 relevant experience in the field. A two-thirds majority vote of the independent review board shall be required to appoint or remove the 18 19 20 director. Persons employed by the office of the foster care ombudsman 21 to act as "ombudsmen" shall have a comprehensive knowledge of the state's foster care system and expertise in the fields of child welfare, 22 foster care, and dispute resolution, specifically in the state of New 23 York, as evidenced by demonstrated professional and personal experience, 24 25 or by academic background, the level and sufficiency of which shall be 26 determined by the director.
- 27 § 524-c. Duties of the office of the foster care ombudsman. 1. The 28 office of the foster care ombudsman shall:
- 29 (a) receive, document and respond to inquiries, grievances and
  30 complaints raised by foster parents, biological parents, relatives, and
  31 youth in care;
- 32 (b) investigate and seek resolution of inquiries, grievances, and 33 complaints;
  - (c) make referrals, where appropriate, to additional information, services and resources;
  - (d) ensure that any resolution or response does not result in retaliation against the person contacting the foster care ombudsman;
  - (e) provide information to foster parents, biological parents, relatives, and youth in care about applicable law, regulation and policy;
  - (f) work with the local department of social services, voluntary agencies, foster parents, biological parents, relatives, and youth in care to resolve conflicts concerning application of applicable law, regulation and policy with regard to the provision of foster care;
- (g) monitor the implementation of applicable law, regulation and policy concerning the provision of foster care through the process of receiving, documenting, tracking and responding to inquiries, grievances and complaints;
  - (h) recommend policies, regulations, and legislation designed to promote and improve family-based foster care;
- (i) prepare an annual report to the commissioner and the legislature, which shall be publicly posted on the office's website, with aggregate data on the total number and types of concerns raised to the foster care ombudsman, the number of parties serviced, the number of disputes resolved and responses provided, the nature of the resolution, the trends and issues that arose while responding to the concerns, by region, and recommendations for changes to applicable law, rules, regulations and policy concerning the provision of foster care; and

- (j) present quarterly reports containing information regarding major inquiries, grievances, and complaints received by the office of the foster care ombudsman, and the status of the responses to such inquiries, grievances and complaints, to the commissioner and the independent foster care ombudsman review board.
- 2. Nothing in this section shall permit the office of the foster care ombudsman to participate in any pending child welfare investigation or family court proceeding.
- § 524-d. Access to the office of the foster care ombudsman. The office of the foster care ombudsman shall provide information to any person who contacts it, including, but not limited to: 1. foster parents; 2. biological parents; 3. relatives; 4. youth in care; 5. county officials; and 6. private agencies, through telephone and internet-based communication.
  - § 524-e. Duties of the director. The director shall:
- 18 1. provide administrative supervision and oversight to the ombudsmen;
  - 2. establish procedures to ensure that the office of the foster care ombudsman services are made available to foster parents, biological parents, relatives, and youth in care;
    - 3. participate in the policy development process of the office;
    - 4. conduct annual anti-bias training for ombudsmen; and
- 5. oversee the preparation of the reports required under paragraphs
  (h) and (i) of subdivision one of section five hundred twenty-four-c of this subtitle.
  - § 524-f. Conduct and scope of mediation and problem-solving. 1. The office of the foster care ombudsman shall provide relevant information about applicable law and policy, and provide a means to resolve issues among and between foster parents, biological parents, relatives, and youth in care, involving the local department of social services and the voluntary agency when necessary.
  - 2. The office of the foster care ombudsman shall develop and apply a process for receiving, documenting, investigating, and resolving or answering inquiries, grievances and complaints raised by foster parents, biological parents, relatives, and youth in care orally or in written form.
  - 3. The office of the foster care ombudsman shall review and evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of resolution procedures, and make recommendations to the independent review board described in section five hundred twenty-four-h for the improvement of such procedures.
- 42 4. The office of the foster care ombudsman shall develop and apply a 43 process for protecting those bringing inquiries, grievances and 44 complaints from retaliation.
- § 524-g. Confidentiality of reports. Office of the foster care ombudsman reports created in response to individual inquiries, griev-ances and complaints raised by foster parents, biological parents, relatives, and youth in care are confidential and shall be safeguarded from coming to the knowledge of, and from inspection or examination by, any person other than the commissioner, their designee or members of the independent review board established pursuant to section five hundred twenty-four-h of this subtitle. Authorized persons receiving such reports shall not divulge information contained therein without the written consent of the commissioner. The authorized disclosure of any such information shall not contain any individually identifiable infor-mation. Nothing in this section shall prevent the office from preparing
