AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the definition of "employer" for purposes of the human rights law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 5 of section 292 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 161 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

5. The term "employer" shall include all employers within the state. For the purposes of this article, (a) the state of New York shall be considered an employer of any employee or official, including any elected official, of the New York state executive, legislature, or judiciary, including persons serving in any judicial capacity, and persons serving on the staff of any elected official in New York state,

(b) a city, county, town, village or other political subdivision of the state of New York shall be considered an employer of any employee or official, including any elected official, of such locality's executive, legislature or judiciary, including persons serving in any local judicial capacity, and persons serving on the staff of any local elected official.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after the effective date of chapter 161 of the laws of 2019.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
