AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to the accessibility of public hearings and meetings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 74-a of the public officers law, as added by chapter 368 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

§ 74-a. Duty of public officers regarding [~~the physically handicapped~~] accessibility. 1. It shall be the duty of each public officer responsible for the scheduling or siting of any public hearing to make [~~reasonable~~] proactive efforts to ensure (a) that such hearings are held in facilities that permit barrier-free physical access to the physically handicapped, as defined in subdivision five of section fifty of the public buildings law; and (b) that services of a qualified interpreter are provided at such public hearings at no charge to persons who are deaf or hard of hearing upon written request to the public officer responsible for the scheduling or siting of the public hearing within a reasonable time prior to such hearing. If interpreter services are requested, the public officer responsible for the scheduling or siting of the public hearing shall engage the services of a qualified interpreter, to interpret the proceeding to, and the testimony of such persons who are deaf or hard of hearing.

2. (a) Such public officers shall have the power and it shall be their individual duty to equip any rooms used for public hearings which accom-
