AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four and the emergency housing rent control law, in relation to requiring property owners to dedicate certain residential units to rent regulated status following demolition and new construction or substantial renovation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 26-512 of the administrative code of the city of 2 New York is amended by adding a new subdivision f to read as follows:

3 f. Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the 4 contrary, if all or a portion of the rent regulated units in a residen-
5 tial building are rendered uninhabitable or are vacated due to demoli-6 tion and new construction or to substantial renovation conducted by or 7 on behalf of the property owner under any of the following circum-
8 stances, the property owner shall, upon completion of the new 9 construction or renovation of the building, dedicate to rent regulated 10 status an equal number of units, of sizes equivalent to those vacated or 11 rendered uninhabitable, at the rent amount allowable for the units 12 existing prior to the demolition or renovation, and the tenant or 13 tenants in possession immediately prior to such demolition or substan-
14 tial renovation shall have the right of first refusal for the occupation 15 of such units:

16 (1) demolition or substantial renovation conducted after the property 17 owner filed an application for a building permit with the department of 18 buildings falsely reporting that no tenants occupied the building
