Introduced by Sens. GRIFFO, RITCHIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to allowing eligible non-resident undergraduate students to pay separate tuition rates for attendance at the state university college of arts and sciences at Potsdam; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph h of subdivision 2 of section 355 of the educa-
2 tion law is amended by adding a new subparagraph 4-b to read as follows:

3 (4-b) Commencing with the two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twen-4 ty-three academic year and ending in the two thousand twenty-six--two 5 thousand twenty-seven academic year, the board of trustees of the state 6 university may designate the state university college of arts and 7 sciences at Potsdam for participation in a program allowing eligible
8 non-resident undergraduate students that reside within two hundred miles 9 of the institution to pay separate tuition rates for attendance at such 10 institution. Such institution shall consider out-of-state competition, 11 current or projected levels of high school graduates within the insti-12 tution's recruitment region, and enrollment capacity and physical 13 location of the institution, if such institution participates in the 14 program. The board of trustees of the state university is further 15 authorized to set such separate tuition rates, which shall not be set 16 below an amount equal to one and one-half times the in-state tuition 17 rate at the designated institution. Such separate tuition rates may be 18 offered only to eligible non-resident students, the total of which shall 19 not exceed ten percent of enrollment at the designated institution. The 20 institution shall report annually to the board of trustees of the state 21 university on the impact of this program.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; and shall expire and be 23 deemed repealed June 1, 2027.
