AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to establishing a New York state prison labor board to create, monitor and enforce an equitable and rehabilitative system of prison labor; abolishing penal servitude by prohibiting the forced labor of incarcerated individuals; providing fair wages and treatment of incarcerated individuals; and prohibiting the use of the labor of incarcerated individuals for earnings which inure to the benefit of the state of New York, the government of the United States, any state of the United States, any public corporation, or any private shareholder or individual

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "Incarcerated Individuals Fair Labor Practices and Dignity for All 3 Act."
4 § 2. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 43-a to 5 read as follows:
6 § 43-a. Prison labor board; organization, functions, powers and 7 duties. 1. a. There shall be within the commission a prison labor board 8 which, for the purposes of this section, shall be referred to as the 9 "labor board".
10 b. The labor board shall be comprised of eleven voting and two ex-of-11 ficio members, all of whom shall serve five-year terms to be appointed 12 as follows:
13 (i) two members to be appointed by the governor;

1 (ii) one member to be appointed by the temporary president of the 2 senate;
3 (iii) one member to be appointed by the speaker of the assembly;
4 (iv) the commissioner of the department of corrections and community 5 supervision or his or her designee;
6 (v) the commissioner of the department of education or his or her 7 designee;
8 (vi) the commissioner of the department of labor or his or her desig-9 nee;
10 (vii) the commissioner of the division of human rights or his or her 11 designee;
12 (viii) the commissioner of the office of general services or his or 13 her designee;
14 (ix) two members who are formerly incarcerated individuals who partic-15 ipated in prison labor enterprises or programs while incarcerated, one 16 of whom participated in the labor or enterprise while incarcerated at a 17 women's correctional institution and one of whom participated in the 18 labor or enterprise while incarcerated at a men's correctional institu-19 tion, and one of whom shall be appointed by the senate chair of the 20 committee on crime victims, crime and correction and one of whom shall 21 be appointed by the assembly chair of the committee on correction; and 22 (x) two members who are members of a not-for-profit organization oper-23 ating in the field of career and workforce development training and 24 community re-entry for incarcerated individuals, one of whom shall be 25 appointed by the senate chair of the committee on crime victims, crime 26 and corrections and one of whom shall be appointed by the assembly chair 27 of the committee on correction, both of whom shall serve as ex-officio 28 members;
29 c. The chairman of the commission of corrections shall serve as the 30 chair of the labor board.
31 2. Every individual appointed to the labor board shall have demon-32 strated knowledge and experience with Corcraft Industries or other 33 enterprises or programs that relate to employment for incarcerated indi-34 viduals, and experience with or skills in penology, vocational and occu-35 pational training, and community reentry programming.
36 3. Any member chosen to fill in a vacancy created other than by expi-37 ration of term shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member 38 whom he or she is to succeed. Vacancies caused by the expiration of term 39 or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as original appoint-40 ments.
41 4. Appointments to the labor board shall be made within ninety days of 42 the effective date of this section. The labor board may begin its duties 43 when a majority of the total number of positions have been appointed 44 pursuant to subdivision one of this section.
45 5. All nongovernmental labor board members shall be reimbursed for 46 reasonable and necessary expenses related to their official duties.
47 6. The labor board and each member thereof shall have the following 48 functions, powers and duties:
49 a. To develop policies, plans and programs for the operation of an 50 equitable and rehabilitative system of prison labor in all enterprises 51 which employ incarcerated individuals and all labor programs which 52 provide vocational or advanced occupational training, or apprentice-53 ships, which enterprises and programs may be located either within state 54 correctional facilities or local correctional facilities or elsewhere, 55 including the development and implementation of:

1 (i) uniform rules, regulations, standards, processes and best prac-
2 tices that all prison labor enterprises and programs shall meet;

3 (ii) rules, regulations, standards and processes that govern the 4 responsibilities of the department of corrections in implementing prison 5 labor enterprises and programs;

6 (iii) standards for assessing prison labor enterprises and programs to 7 determine whether they result in career readiness and employability of 8 incarcerated individuals upon their release; and 9 (iv) methods for expanding access to quality prison labor enterprises 10 and programming which shall consider the funding and resources needed to 11 adequately prepare incarcerated individuals for success upon release and 12 the funding and resources needed to provide re-entry services.

13 b. To prohibit the forced labor of incarcerated individuals.

14 c. To ensure that wages paid to incarcerated individuals are not less 15 than the minimum wage established by article nineteen of the labor law.

16 d. To establish and maintain conditions in all prison labor enter-17 prises and programs that are in compliance with all workplace health and 18 safety protections required by federal and state law.

19 e. To prohibit use of the labor of incarcerated individuals for earn-20 ings which inure to the benefit of the state of New York, the government 21 of the United States, any state of the United States, or any public 22 corporation, or any private shareholder or individual.

23 f. To investigate, review or take such other action as shall be deemed 24 necessary or proper with respect to any prison labor enterprise or 25 program.

26 g. To have access, at any and all times, to any state correctional 27 facility or local correctional facility or part thereof and to all 28 books, records, and data pertaining to any state correctional facility 29 or local correctional facility which are deemed necessary for carrying 30 out the labor board's functions, powers and duties.

31 h. To obtain from administrators, officers or employees of any state 32 correctional facility or local correctional facility any information 33 deemed necessary for the purpose of carrying out its functions, powers 34 and duties.

35 i. To request and receive temporary office space in any state correc-36 tional facility or local correctional facility for the purpose of carry-37 ing out its functions, powers and duties.

38 j. To establish, expand, diminish, or discontinue prison enterprises 39 or programs to provide as much employment for incarcerated individuals 40 as is feasible, for the fair and equitable distribution of enterprise 41 and program assignments, and to provide diversified work activities to 42 minimize the impact on existing private industry in the state.

43 k. To foster and promote research and study in areas of prison labor 44 policy and program development deemed necessary or desirable by the 45 commission.

46 § 3. Subdivision 3 of section 170 of the correction law, as amended by 47 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended and three new subdivisions 48 4, 5 and 6 are added to read as follows:

49 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an incarcerated indi-50 vidual may be permitted to leave the institution under guard to volun-51 tarily perform work for a nonprofit organization. As used in this 52 section, the term "nonprofit organization" means an organization oper-53 ated exclusively for religious, charitable, or educational purposes, no 54 part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of the state of 55 New York, the government of the United States, any state of the United 56 States or political subdivision thereof, any public corporation or

1 eleemosynary association or corporation funded in whole or in part by 2 any federal, state or local funds or any private shareholder or individ-3 ual.

4 4. (a) No incarcerated individual shall be compelled or induced to 5 provide labor against his or her will by means of actual or threatened 6 force, punishment, sexual assault, or by any other means reasonably 7 likely to cause the incarcerated individual to believe that, if they do 8 not provide such labor, that they or another person would suffer phys-9 ical, emotional, or mental harm or other adverse consequences.

10 (b) For the purposes of this subdivision, the failure to pay, or 11 underpayment of, all wages due for work performed shall also constitute 12 a violation of this section.

13 5. Any incarcerated individual alleging a violation of subdivision 14 four of this section against any state or local correctional facility in 15 the state shall have a cause of action in the court of appropriate 16 jurisdiction for damages and injunctive relief and such other remedies 17 as may be appropriate.

18 6. (a) Any incarcerated individual alleging a violation of subdivision 19 four of this section against any officer or employee of any state or 20 local correctional facility in the state shall within ten years after 21 the acts alleged to have violated this subdivision have a cause of 22 action for damages, including punitive damages, and for injunctive 23 relief and such other remedies as may be appropriate together with all 24 reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

25 (b) The immunity granted pursuant to subdivision one of section twenty-26 four of this chapter shall not extend to actions brought pursuant to 27 subdivision four of this section, and any action commenced under subdivi-28 vision four of this section may be brought in any court of competent 29 jurisdiction, including the supreme court.

30 (c) A violation of any of the foregoing provisions shall constitute 31 sufficient cause for the removal of such employee by the duly consti-32 tuted authority having jurisdiction.

33 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 171 of the correction law, as amended by 34 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

35 1. [~~The commissioner and the superintendents and officials of all~~ 36 ~~penitentiaries in the state may cause incarcerated individuals in the~~ 37 ~~state correctional facilities and such penitentiaries who are physically~~ 38 ~~capable thereof to be employed for not to exceed eight hours of each day~~ 39 ~~other than Sundays and public holidays. Notwithstanding any other~~ 40 ~~provision of this section, however, the commissioner and superintendents~~ 41 ~~of state correctional facilities may employ inmates on a volunteer basis~~
42 ~~on Sundays and public holidays in specialized areas of the facility,~~ 43 ~~including kitchen areas, vehicular garages, rubbish pickup and grounds~~ 44 ~~maintenance, providing, however, that incarcerated individuals so~~ 45 ~~employed shall be allowed an alternative free day within the normal work~~ 46 ~~week.] All persons incarcerated in any state or local correctional 47 facility in the state who request employment shall be afforded an equal 48 opportunity to be employed, and the commissioner, the superintendents 49 and officials of all penitentiaries must make all efforts to ensure that 50 job assignments are distributed equitably such that, to the extent prac-51 ticable, work is provided to all who request employment.~~

52 § 5. Subdivision 7 of section 177 of the correction law, as renumbered 53 by chapter 256 of the laws of 2010, shall be renumbered subdivision 8 54 and a new subdivision 7 is added to read as follows:

55 7. Any incarcerated individual performing labor as described in this 56 section shall be compensated for his or her labor in an amount that is

1 not less than the minimum wage established by article nineteen of the 2 labor law for work performed or work for which a wage is paid. For the 3 purposes of this subdivision, "work for which a wage is paid" includes 4 any task assigned to an incarcerated individual for which a wage would 5 have been due except for his or her status as an incarcerated individ-6 ual.

7 § 6. Section 178 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 322 of 8 the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

9 § 178. Participation in work release and other community activities.
10 [~~Nothing contained in this article shall be construed or applied so as~~ 11 ~~to prohibit private employment of incarcerated individuals in the commu-~~ 12 ~~nity under a work release program, or a residential treatment facility~~ 13 ~~program formulated pursuant to any provision of this chapter.] Any 14 incarcerated individual who is employed under a work release program or 15 a residential treatment facility program formulated pursuant to any 16 provision of this chapter shall be compensated for his or her labor in 17 an amount that is not less than the minimum wage established by article 18 nineteen of the labor law for work performed or work for which a wage is 19 paid. For the purposes of this section, "work for which a wage is paid" 20 includes any task assigned to an incarcerated individual for which a 21 wage would have been due except for his or her status as an incarcerated 22 individual.~~

23 § 7. Section 184 of the correction law is amended by adding a new 24 subdivision 3 to read as follows:

25 3. Any incarcerated individual performing work as described in this 26 section shall be compensated for his or her labor in an amount that is 27 not less than the minimum wage established by article nineteen of the 28 labor law for work performed or work for which a wage is paid. For the 29 purposes of this subdivision, "work for which a wage is paid" includes 30 any task assigned to an incarcerated individual for which a wage would 31 have been due except for his or her status as an incarcerated individ-32 ual.

33 § 8. Section 186 of the correction law is amended by adding a new 34 subdivision 5 to read as follows:

35 5. Any service performed by an incarcerated individual as described in 36 this section shall be compensated in an amount that is not less than the 37 minimum wage established by article nineteen of the labor law for work 38 performed or work for which a wage is paid. For the purposes of this 39 subdivision, "work for which a wage is paid" includes any task assigned 40 to an incarcerated individual for which a wage would have been due 41 except for his or her status as an incarcerated individual.

42 § 9. Section 187 of the correction law is amended by adding a new 43 subdivision 5 to read as follows:

44 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the 45 contrary, no incarcerated individual shall be compensated an amount that 46 is less than the minimum wage established by article nineteen of the 47 labor law for work performed or work for which a wage is paid. For the 48 purposes of this subdivision, "work for which a wage is paid" includes 49 any task assigned to an incarcerated individual for which a wage would 50 have been due except for his or her status as an incarcerated individ-51 ual.

52 § 10. This act shall take effect one hundred eightieth day after it 53 shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment 54 and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation 55 of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 56 completed on or before such date.
