AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law and the family court act, in relation to establishing a living allowance for adults with developmental disabilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The domestic relations law is amended by adding a new 2 section 240-d to read as follows:

3 § 240-d. Support orders for certain adult dependents. 1. Notwithstand-
4 ing any other law, a person who would otherwise be chargeable under law
5 with support of a minor child is also chargeable with the support of any 6 such individual until such individual reaches the age of twenty-six,
7 when it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the person is 8 developmentally disabled as defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 9 1.03 of the mental hygiene law, resides with the person seeking such 10 support, and is principally dependent on such person for maintenance. A 11 finding of a developmental disability shall be supported by a diagnosis
12 and accompanying report of a physician, licensed psychologist, regis-
13 tered professional nurse, licensed clinical social worker or a licensed 14 master social worker under the supervision of a physician, psychologist
15 or licensed clinical social worker authorized to practice under title 16 eight of the education law, and acting within their lawful scope of 17 practice.

18 2. Upon petition brought by such person, the court shall make its 19 award for support for such individual with a developmental disability in 20 accordance with the provisions of subdivision one-b of section two 21 hundred forty of this article. In addition to the provisions of subdi-

1 vision one-b of section two hundred forty of this article, the court may 2 consider whether the financial responsibility of caring for the individ-3 ual has been unreasonably placed on one parent when determining the 4 support obligation. The duration of time the court may use when consid-
5 ering this factor shall be limited to the time period from when the
6 child turned twenty-one until the individual turns twenty-six. If a
7 child support order ended at the age of eighteen then such time period
8 shall be from when the child turned eighteen until the individual turns
9 twenty-six.

10 3. The court has jurisdiction to determine proceedings brought by 11 petition and order to show cause, for the determination of support of 12 such adult dependents, as well as to enforce or modify orders or judg-13 ments.

14 4. The court shall have discretion to order the payor party to make 15 support payments either to the petitioner or to the trustee of an 16 "exception trust" as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4)(A) and (C), 17 clause (iii) of subparagraph two of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of 18 section three hundred sixty-six of the social services law, and section 19 7-1.12 of the estates, powers and trusts law if such direction would 20 assist in maximizing assistance to the child.

21 5. Except where inconsistent with this section, all provisions of this 22 article relating to orders of child support shall apply to all orders of 23 support for adults with developmental disabilities.

24 § 2. The family court act is amended by adding a new section 413-b to 25 read as follows:

26 § 413-b. Support orders for certain adult dependents. 1. Notwithstand-
27 ing any other law, a person who would otherwise be chargeable under law
28 with support of a minor child is also chargeable with the support of any
29 such individual until such individual reaches the age of twenty-six,
30 when it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the person is 31 developmentally disabled as defined under subdivision twenty-two of 32 section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law, resides with the person seeking 33 such support, and is principally dependent on such person for mainte-
34 nance. A finding of a developmental disability shall be supported by a 35 diagnosis and accompanying report of a physician, licensed psychologist,
36 registered professional nurse, licensed clinical social worker or a 37 licensed master social worker under the supervision of a physician, 38 psychologist or licensed clinical social worker authorized to practice
39 under title eight of the education law, and acting within their lawful 40 scope of practice.

41 2. Upon petition brought by the parent or kinship caregiver of an 42 adult child with a disability, the court shall make its award for 43 support for such individual with a developmental disability in accord-44 ance with the provisions of subdivision one of section four hundred 45 thirteen of this part. In addition to the provisions of subdivision one 46 of section four hundred thirteen of this part, the court may consider 47 whether the financial responsibility of caring for the individual has 48 been unreasonably placed on one parent when determining the child
49 support obligation. The duration of time the court may use when consid-
50 ering this factor shall be limited to the time period from when the
51 child turned twenty-one until the individual turns twenty-six. If a
52 child support order ended at the age of eighteen then such time period
53 shall be from when the child turned eighteen until the individual turns
54 twenty-six.

1     3. The court has jurisdiction to determine proceedings brought by
2 petition and order to show cause, for the determination of support of 3 such dependents, as well as to enforce or modify orders or judgments.

4     4. The court shall have discretion to order the payor party to make 5 support payments either to the petitioner or to the trustee of an
6 "exception trust" as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4)(A) and (C), clause
7 (iii) of subparagraph two of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 8 three hundred sixty-six of the social services law, and section 7-1.12 9 of the estates, powers and trusts law if such direction would assist in 10 maximizing assistance to the child.

11     5. Except where inconsistent with this section, all provisions of this 12 article relating to orders of child support shall apply to all orders of 13 support for adults with developmental disabilities.

14     § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
