AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to making the falsification of COVID-19 vaccination records a crime

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 170.00 of the penal law, as 2 amended by chapter 514 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as 3 follows:
- 1. "Written instrument" means any instrument or article, including computer data or a computer program, containing written or printed matter or the equivalent thereof, used for the purpose of reciting, embodying, conveying or recording information, or constituting a symbol or evidence of value, right, privilege or identification, which is capable of being used to the advantage or disadvantage of some person. For the purposes of this article, a card provided to a person by a vaccine provider indicating the date a person received a vaccination against COVID-19 as well as the type of vaccine and its lot number shall be considered a written instrument.
- § 2. Section 156.25 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 89 of the laws of 1993, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 376 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:
- 17 § 156.25 Computer tampering in the third degree.
- A person is guilty of computer tampering in the third degree when he or she commits the crime of computer tampering in the fourth degree and:
- 1. he or she does so with an intent to commit or attempt to commit or further the commission of any felony; or
