Introduced by Sens. BAILEY, HOYLMAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Finance

AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to establishing the New York baby opportunity fund

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section
2 78-c to read as follows:

3 § 78-c. New York baby opportunity fund. 1. There is hereby established
4 in the joint custody of the state comptroller, the commissioner of taxa-
5 tion and finance and the commissioner of health the New York baby oppor-6 tunity fund.

7 2. The New York baby opportunity fund shall consist of moneys trans-8 ferred to the fund by the state comptroller from the general fund and 9 all other moneys appropriated, credited, or transferred thereto from any 10 other fund or source pursuant to law. Nothing contained herein shall 11 prevent the state from receiving grants, gifts or bequests for the 12 purposes of the fund as defined in this section and depositing them into 13 the fund according to law.

14 3. The department of health shall promulgate application forms to be 15 submitted to the comptroller upon the birth of an eligible child. The 16 fund shall provide for the deposit of one thousand dollars into an indi-17 vidual account for each eligible child within six months of receipt of 18 an application to the fund for such child. Monies within each account 19 shall be invested in a manner that generates a rate of return at least 20 equal to the rate of return earned on a thirty-year treasury bond.

21 4. Monies in each account shall be identified by a unique identifica-22 tion number and may only be accessed by the eligible child for which the 23 account was originally created. In order to access such funds, the 24 eligible child shall be at least eighteen years old and a current resi-

1 dent of the state at the time of withdrawal. Such monies shall only be 2 utilized for qualified expenses.

3 5. Monies of the fund shall be expended by the state comptroller sole-4 ly for the purpose of administering the provisions of this section.

5 6. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have 6 the following meanings:

7 (a) "eligible child" shall mean any child born after the effective 8 date of this section to parents who are residents of the state and who 9 have an annual household income of less than five hundred percent of the 10 federal poverty level;

11 (b) "household income" shall mean the sum of the adjusted gross
12 incomes of the eligible child's birth parents. Such gross income amounts 13 shall be calculated based on information from the most recent taxable
14 year available as provided and certified by the department of taxation
15 and finance;

16 (c) "qualified expenses" shall mean expenses for the education of the 17 account holder, ownership of a home by the account holder, and costs 18 associated with establishing or otherwise building a business.

19 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 20 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-21 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-22 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 23 completed on or before such effective date.
