1 mechanical device. An election district shall contain not more than nine 2 hundred fifty registrants (excluding registrants in inactive status) or, 3 with the approval of the county board of elections, not more than eleven 4 hundred fifty registrants (excluding registrants in inactive status), 5 but any election district may be divided for the convenience of the 6 voters.

- 7 § 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 8-600 of the election 8 law, as amended by chapter 344 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read 9 as follows:
- 10 (a) The board of elections shall designate polling places for early 11 voting, which may include the offices of the board of elections, for persons to vote early pursuant to this title; provided, however, that 12 13 the municipality with the highest population in each county based on the 14 latest federal decennial census shall have at least one polling place 15 designated for early voting, and to the extent practicable if such muni-16 cipality has public transportation routes, such polling place shall be 17 situated along such transportation routes. There shall be so designated at least one early voting polling place for every full increment of 18 fifty thousand registered voters in each county; provided, however, the 19 20 number of early voting polling places in a county shall not be required 21 to be greater than ten unless required by any other provision of law, and a county with fewer than fifty thousand voters shall have at least 22 23 one early voting polling place. Whenever a contiguous property of a 24 college or university contains three hundred or more registrants 25 (excluding registrants in inactive status) who are registered to vote at 26 an address on such contiguous property, such contiguous property or a 27 location approved by the college or university shall be designated as an early voting polling place. 28
- 29 § 4. This act shall take effect January 1, 2024.
