9. No benefits paid pursuant to this article shall be reduced by any amount to compensate the state for the costs of incarcerating the exoneree.

10. A person who properly presents a claim pursuant to subdivisions three and four of this section shall be entitled to receive a payment of ten thousand dollars per month from the state for each month between the time a claim is filed and the final judgment is recorded, provided however that on motion of the attorney general the court may stay such payment on the grounds that such claim is frivolous, that the claimant

1 is unlikely to prevail on the merits, or that the period of wrongful 2 incarceration was so short that significant damages and benefits should 3 not be awarded.

4 11. An exoneree found by the court to have served a period of wrongful 5 incarceration of more than one year or to have experienced significant 6 hardship resulting from such incarceration shall be ordered by the court

26 student financial aid purposes.

27 14. Any and all benefits made available to parolees through the divi-

34 16. (a) Any person claiming compensation and additional benefits under 35 this section based on a pardon that was granted on or after the effec-

46 section may refile his or her claim under this section within two years 47 after the effective date of this subdivision.

48 (d) Any person who did not previously file a claim because his or her
49 claim did not satisfy clause (A) or (B) of subparagraph (ii) of para-50 graph (b) of subdivision five of this section and is barred by the 51 existing statute of limitations, may file his or her claim under this
