2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

February 12, 2021

Introduced by Sen. COMRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Energy and Telecommunications

AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to prohibiting utility companies from harassing, oppressing or abusing any residential customer in connection with the handling of a complaint or unpaid balance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public service law is amended by adding a new section
2 53-a to read as follows:

3 § 53-a. Prohibition of utilities engaging in detrimental conduct
4 towards a residential customer. 1. A utility corporation or municipi-
5 ality, or energy services companies subject to the department's uniform 6 business practices and section three hundred forty-nine and three 7 hundred forty-nine-d of the general business law, also known as ESCOs, 8 shall not engage in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to 9 harass, oppress, or abuse any residential customer in connection with 10 the handling of a residential customer complaint, the offering and/or 11 negotiating of a deferred payment agreement, or the collection of an 12 unpaid balance or any other obligation owed by such customer.

13 2. All utilities or municipal utilities or ESCOs in violation of this 14 section shall be subject to fines, penalties and enforcement by the 15 department pursuant to sections twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-five-a, 16 and twenty-six of this chapter, and all such other legal or equitable 17 remedies as may be necessary or convenient for protection of consumers 18 against the prohibited behaviors described in subdivision one of this 19 section.

20 3. The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to 21 implement and enforce the provisions of this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
