AN ACT to amend the multiple dwelling law, in relation to authorizing any dwelling with a certificate authorizing occupancy as a Class B hotel to also authorize occupancy of such units in such dwelling for permanent residence purposes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 301 of the multiple dwelling law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

3 7. a. Any certificate by the department authorizing occupancy of a 4 dwelling as a Class B hotel shall also authorize occupancy of units in 5 such dwelling for permanent residence purposes notwithstanding any 6 provision of this chapter or of any state law, local law, ordinance,
7 resolution or regulation that would otherwise prohibit such occupancy, 8 require a change or alteration to the dwelling, or require a new or 9 amended certificate, provided that: (1) such occupancy for permanent 10 residence purposes shall be subject to the approval of the local housing 11 agency in its discretion; (2) a portion of such dwelling shall be 12 located within a district that under the local zoning regulations or 13 ordinances permits residential uses or within four hundred feet of such

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 a district, and such dwelling shall not be located in an industrial 2 business zone established pursuant to chapter six-D of title twenty-two 3 of the administrative code of the city of New York; (3) in the case of a 4 property at which any hotel workers are represented by a collective 5 bargaining representative, prior to the proposed conversion of such 6 property to occupancy for permanent residence purposes, the collective 7 bargaining representative shall be notified in writing of the proposed 8 conversion, and the property owner shall certify prior to the local 9 housing agency approving such occupancy that the collective bargaining
10 representative has mutually agreed in a separate writing with the prop-11 erty owner to undertake the specific conversion described in the written 12 notice; and (4) such dwelling shall meet the conditions in paragraph b
13 of this subdivision. Alterations to the configuration of any such units 14 shall be permitted and shall comply with any applicable requirements of 15 any state law, local law, ordinance, resolution or regulation relating 16 to Class B hotels. If occupancy for permanent residence purposes is 17 authorized under the provisions of this subdivision within a district 18 where the local zoning regulations or ordinances would not otherwise 19 permit such use, the residential tenants shall be notified of the 20 district's zoning.

21 b. Occupancy of units in a dwelling shall not be authorized under the 22 provisions of paragraph a of this subdivision unless such units are (1) 23 financed by the state pursuant to and in compliance with the provisions 24 of article thirty-one of the private housing finance law; or (2) 25 purchased, acquired, or financed by a local housing agency, for the 26 purpose of creating supportive and/or affordable housing to be operated 27 by an appropriate nonprofit organization pursuant to a regulatory agree-28 ment or contract with such local agency for low-income households or 29 people experiencing homelessness immediately prior to entering such 30 housing, where tenants shall earn no more than sixty percent of the area 31 median income and all units are rent stabilized and subject to permanent 32 affordability restrictions. For purposes of this paragraph, "appropriate 33 nonprofit organization", "affordable housing", "experiencing homeless-
34 ness", "rent stabilized", and "permanent affordability restrictions" 35 shall have the same meaning as defined in article thirty-one of the 36 private housing finance law.

37 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
