terrorism in consultation with the United States department of homeland security.

- § 3. Section 656 of the county law is amended to read as follows:
- § 656. Emergency equipment and apparatus. If, in the protection of human life and property, the sheriff shall deem it necessary to hire any equipment or apparatus together with the operator thereof, he may hire the same during the period of an emergency or catastrophe at a reasonable charge therefor. The same shall be audited and paid as a county charge in the manner prescribed by the board of supervisors, and in the discretion of such board, there may be a direction that the further hiring and payment be approved by the chairman of the board or of a designated committee of such board. The sheriff, or his or her deputies, shall not authorize the transfer, acceptance, or purchase of military weapons from the United States government.
- § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 150 of the town law, as amended by chapter 476 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:
- 17 1. The town board of any town may establish a police department and appoint a chief of police and such officers as may be needed and fix 18 their compensation. The compensation of such police officers shall be a 19 20 town charge; providing however, no assessment on property in any village 21 within any town or partially within any town shall be made for the maintenance or operation of a town police department established after Janu-22 ary first, nineteen hundred sixty, pursuant to this section if any such 23 24 village maintains a police department of four or more police officers on 25 an annual full-time basis, established and maintained under the rules of 26 civil service. The town board may, at its option, determine that the 27 town shall pay all or part of the cost of the uniforms and necessary equipment of its police officers, and may purchase such equipment for 28 use by the police department as it shall deem necessary, including 29 30 police patrol vehicles, and emergency service vehicles for police use in 31 connection with accidents, public calamities or other emergencies. The 32 town board or local police department shall not authorize the transfer, 33 acceptance, or purchase of military weapons from the United States government. No assessment on property in any village within any town in 34 35 the county of Suffolk or in any village within the town of Fallsburgh 36 shall be made for the maintenance or operation of such town police 37 department, if any such village maintains a police department of two or 38 more police officers on an annual basis. In the event that a town has 39 established a police department prior to January first, nineteen hundred sixty, the town board of such town may enter into an agreement with any 40 41 village within it or partially within it which maintains a police 42 department of four or more police officers on an annual full-time basis, 43 established and maintained under the rules of civil service and deter-44 mine therein what part of the cost thereof shall be assessed against the 45 property in the village and what part thereof shall be assessed against 46 the property in the town outside of the village. Thereafter such portion 47 the cost thereof determined to be assessed outside of the village shall be a charge against that part of the town outside of the village 48 and assessed, levied and collected from the taxable property of that 49 part of the town outside of the village. When appointed, such police 50 51 officers shall have all the powers and be subject to all the duties and 52 liabilities of a police officer in all criminal actions and proceedings 53 and special proceedings of a criminal nature.
- § 5. Chapter 360 of the laws of 1911 relating to police in certain municipalities is amended by adding a new section 4-a to read as 56 follows:

S. 511--A 3

4-a. Any commissioner of police, superintendent of police, chief of police, or other officer or officers, having the management, control or direction of the police force is authorized to purchase, lease or lease-3 4 purchase, necessary equipment of his or her police officers, and may purchase such equipment for use by the police department as he or she shall deem necessary, including police patrol vehicles, and emergency service vehicles for police use in connection with accidents, public calamities or other emergencies. The commissioner of police, superinten-9 dent of police, chief of police, or other officer or officers, having 10 the management, control or direction of the police force shall not 11 authorize the transfer, acceptance, or purchase of military weapons from 12 the United States government. 13

§ 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
