AN ACT to amend the social services law and the executive law, in relation to residential programs for children

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 462-b of the social services law is renumbered 1 section 462-c and a new section 462-b is added to read as follows: 2 3 § 462-b. Rights of youth in detention and residential care. 1. In order to ensure that residents of facilities or programs for youth oper-4 ated, licensed or certified by the office of children and family 5 services are treated consistently with the laws and regulations, and are б 7 assured appropriate and quality care, the commissioner of the office of 8 children and family services shall promulgate regulations informing residents of their rights under law. Such regulations shall include, but 9 not be limited to, informing residents that they have the right to: 10 11 a. A safe, sanitary and nurturing environment free from abuse and 12 mistreatment by employees and other residents of the facility or residence which may cause a child to become an abused or neglected child as 13 14 defined in subdivision eleven of section four hundred eighty-eight of 15 this chapter and other residents of the facility or residence; b. An individual services or treatment plan, appropriate for the type 16 17 of facility and designed with the active participation of the youth, and 18 the parent or guardian, to the extent possible; 19 c. The following should not be withheld as a disciplinary measure: 20 nutrition, hydration, sleep, exercise, education, bedding, a daily shower, water, a toilet, medical services, reading material, and contact 21 22 with parents, guardians, or attorneys, except in the event such contact 23 poses a safety threat to the youth or others;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
