S. 5598--C

c. An employer shall provide a current employee with the range of compensation and the job description for the employee's current position at the time of hire, upon the employee's request, if such range of compensation or job description existed at such employee's time of hire.

- 2. No employer shall refuse to interview, hire, promote, employ or otherwise retaliate against an applicant or current employee for exercising any rights under this section.
- 3. The commissioner may promulgate rules and regulations to effectuate the provisions of this section.
- 4. The department shall conduct a public awareness outreach campaign, which shall include making information available on its website and otherwise informing employers of the provisions of this section.
- 5. a. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section may file with the commissioner a complaint regarding such alleged violation for an investigation of such complaint and statement setting the appropriate remedy, if any, pursuant to the provisions of section one hundred ninety-six-a of this article.
- b. An employer who fails to comply with any requirement of this section or any regulation published thereunder shall be deemed in violation of this section and shall be subject to a civil penalty in accordance with section two hundred eighteen of this chapter.
- 6. An employer shall keep and maintain necessary records to comply with the requirements of this section including, but not limited to, the history of compensation ranges for each employment opportunity and the job descriptions for such positions, if such descriptions exist.
- 7. For the purposes of this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:
- a. "employment opportunity" shall mean an available job, promotion, or transfer opportunity.
- b. "advertisement" shall mean a written description of an available employment opportunity that is publicized to a pool of potential applicants for internal or public viewing, including electronically.
- c. "range of compensation" shall mean the minimum and maximum annual salary or hourly range of compensation for an employment opportunity that the employer in good faith believes to be accurate at the time of the posting of an advertisement for such employment opportunity.
 - d. "employer" shall mean:
- (i) any person, corporation, limited liability company, association, labor organization or entity employing four or more employees in any occupation, industry, trade, business or service, or any agent thereof; and
- (ii) any person, corporation, limited liability company, association or entity acting as an employment agent or recruiter, or otherwise connecting applicants with employers, provided that "employer" shall not include a temporary help firm as such term is defined by subdivision five of section nine hundred sixteen of this chapter.
- 47 § 2. This act shall take effect on the two hundred seventieth day 48 after it shall have become a law.
