STATE OF NEW YORK

5635

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

March 15, 2021

Introduced by Sen. PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to providing free SUNY and CUNY tuition to all New York state and New York city employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph h of subdivision 2 of section 355 of the education law is amended by adding a new subparagraph 1-a to read as follows:

(1-a) The trustees shall implement a program to permit any student who has been admitted to a state-operated institution of the state university to attend without the payment of tuition, books, and fees if such student is a current employee, and has been for at least two years, of the state of New York or the city of New York. The provisions of this subparagraph shall only apply to costs of one undergraduate and/or graduate degree and any additional costs associated with more than one simultaneous undergraduate or graduate degree shall not be covered by this program.

(i) The trustees shall provide an application process and administer the program according to the following criteria:

(A) Any student eligible for resident tuition rates is eligible for this program.

(B) The student shall be required to be a current employee of the state or the city of New York for at least two years prior to making such application and through the completion of his or her academic program.

(C) Students shall be required to complete their degree program within a minimum period of time to be set by the trustees which shall be no fewer than three years and no more than five years.

(D) The student shall be required to maintain a cumulative grade point average (G.P.A.) of at least 2.5 in order to remain eligible for the program.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD10192-01-1

(ii) If a student or former student fails to fulfill any of the requirements set forth in clause (i) of this subparagraph, the trustees shall convert to a student loan the full amount of the tuition which would have been paid by such student, as determined by the New York state higher education services corporation, plus interest, according to a schedule to be determined by such corporation. Such repayment may also be required if a recipient fails to respond to requests for information necessary to determine continued eligibility or for administration of the program.

(iii) Any student who elects to participate in the program under this subparagraph shall be required to apply for tuition assistance program funding. Funds awarded on the tuition assistance program shall be applied towards the cost of tuition prior to an award under this subparagraph.

(iv) Students shall be responsible for all other costs including housing, fees and other non-tuition related charges.

§ 2. Subdivision 7 of section 6206 of the education law is amended by adding a new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) The trustees shall implement a program to permit any student who has been admitted to an institution operated by the city university to attend without the payment of tuition, books, and fees if such student fulfills the requirements of such program pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

(i) The trustees shall provide an application process and administer the program according to the following criteria:

(A) Any student eligible for resident tuition rates is eligible for this program.

(B) The student shall be required to be a current employee of the state of New York or the city of New York for at least two years prior to making such application and through the completion of his or her academic program.

(C) Students shall be required to complete their degree program within a minimum period of time to be set by the trustees which shall be no fewer than three years and no more than five years.

(D) The student shall be required to maintain a cumulative grade point average (G.P.A.) of at least 2.5 in order to remain eligible for the program.

(ii) If a student or former student fails to fulfill any of the requirements set forth in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the trustees shall convert to a student loan the full amount of the tuition which would have been paid by such student, as determined by the New York state higher education services corporation, plus interest, according to a schedule to be determined by such corporation. Such repayment may also be required if a recipient fails to respond to requests for information necessary to determine continued eligibility or for administration of the program.

(iii) Any student who elects to participate in the program under this paragraph shall be required to apply for tuition assistance program funding. Funds awarded on the tuition assistance program shall be applied towards the cost of tuition prior to an award under this subparagraph.

(iv) Students shall be responsible for all other costs including housing, fees and other non-tuition related charges.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.