AN ACT directing the department of financial services to conduct a study on certain impacts of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. 1. The department of financial services shall conduct a
2 study on the impact of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic on the 3 following:
4 (a) underbanked and underserved areas;
5 (b) small businesses, as defined by section 131 of the economic devel-
6 opment law, getting loans; and
7 (c) minority- and women-owned business enterprises, as defined by 8 subdivisions 7 and 15 of section 310 of the executive law, getting
9 loans.
10 2. The study shall examine topics to include, but not be limited to:
11 (a) the ability of individuals in underbanked and underserved areas to 12 receive, access, and use their stimulus payments;
13 (b) changes in banking habits of individuals in underbanked and under-
14 served areas;
15 (c) closures or changes to hours, staffing levels, or services in 16 banks in underbanked or underserved areas;
17 (d) the number of small businesses applying for loans; the number of 18 small businesses receiving approval for such loans; and the amount of 19 money such small businesses have received in loans;
20 (e) the number of minority- and women-owned business enterprises
21 applying for loans; the number of minority- and women-owned business
22 enterprises receiving approval for such loans; and the amount of money
23 such minority- and women-owned business enterprises have received in 24 loans;

LBD10718-01-1

1 (f) the types of loans small businesses and minority- and women-owned
2 business enterprises are applying for and the types of loans such busi-
3 nesses are being approved for; and

4 (g) the number of small businesses and minority- and women-owned busi-
5 ness enterprises that had to close due to inability to access or receive
6 loans.

7 3. The department of financial services shall analyze any gaps in 8 service to underbanked and underserved areas, small businesses and 9 minority- and women-owned business enterprises and provide recommenda-
10 tions to address such service gaps to ensure individuals living in such 11 areas and to ensure such businesses can access services.

12 4. The superintendent of financial services shall submit the results
13 of such study and all recommendations to the governor, the temporary 14 president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly, and publish
15 such results and recommendations on the department of financial services
16 website no later than November 1, 2021.

17 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
