AN ACT to amend the election law and the town law, in relation to elections

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 6-202 of the election law, as added by chapter 359 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows: 1. Party nominations of candidates for village offices in any county 3 shall be made at a party caucus or at a primary election, as the rules of the county committee, heretofore or hereafter adopted consistent with the provisions of this chapter shall provide. If the rules of the county 7 committee of any political party provide that party nominations for village offices of that party in any or all villages in the county shall 9 be made at a village primary election, such primary election shall be 10 held [forty-nine days prior to the date of the village election] the 11 first Tuesday after the second Monday in June before every general 12 election in an even-numbered year unless otherwise changed by an act of 13 the legislature. In the event a village elects its officers on a date 14 not in November, such primary election shall be held forty-nine days prior to the date of the village election. In the event there is no 15 village committee with a chairman, the chairman of the county committee, 16 or such other person or body as the rules of such committee may provide, 17 18 shall designate an enrolled member of the party who is a qualified voter 19 of the village as the village election chairman. The chairman of the 20 county committee of each party in which nominations in any village are made at a primary election shall file with the board of elections, at 22 least one week before the first day to file designating petitions for such primary elections, a list of the name and address of the chairman of the village committee or the village election chairman in each such village. Such village chairman shall have general party responsibility for the conduct of the village caucus or primary election. Such nominations shall be made not more than fifty-six, nor less than forty-nine days prior to the date of the village election.

- § 2. Paragraphs a and b of subdivision 1 of section 15-104 of the election law, paragraph a as amended by chapter 248 of the laws of 1983 and paragraph b as amended by chapter 565 of the laws of 1998, are amended to read as follows:
- a. The general village election shall be held on the [third Tuesday in March except in any village which presently elects, or hereafter adopts a proposition to elect, its officers on a date other than the third Tuesday in March] Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November in an even-numbered year except in any village which as of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-two that amended this paragraph elects its officers on a date not in November.

[b. In any village in which the general village election, or a special village election for officers pursuant to this chapter, is scheduled to be held on the third Tuesday of March, for any year in which the seventeenth day of March shall fall on such Tuesday, the board of trustees of such village shall provide, by the resolution prescribed by paragraph be of subdivision three of this section, that such election shall be held on the eighteenth day of March. Any provision of a resolution adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall not otherwise alter the political calendar for any such election, which shall continue to be computed from the third Tuesday of March. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision five of this section, any provision of a resolution adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall be effective only if such provision is specifically published as provided by this section.

- § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 6-200 of the election law, as added by chapter 359 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. This title applies to all general and special village elections for officers which are conducted by the board of elections [on a date other than the date of the general election] and all the provisions of this chapter, not inconsistent with this title, shall apply.
 - § 4. Section 80 of the town law is amended to read as follows:
- § 80. Biennial town elections. [Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a] A biennial town election for the election of town officers and for the consideration of such questions as may be proposed by the town board or the duly qualified electors, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November of every [odd-numbered] even-numbered year. All other town elections are special elections. A town election or special town election held pursuant to this chapter, shall be construed as a substitute, for a town meeting or a special town meeting heretofore provided to be held by law, and a reference in any law to a town meeting or special town meeting shall be construed as referring to a town election or special town election.
- § 5. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law or of any other general, special or local law, all elections of any position of a county elected official, town elected official, or village elected official, except a village elected official who is elected on a date not in November, shall occur on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November. All such elections shall occur in an even-numbered year.

§ 6. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law or of any other general, special, or local law, a county elected official, town elected official, or village elected official, with exception of a village elected official who is elected on a date not in November, presently elected and serving their term as of the enactment of this act shall complete their full term as established in local law.

- § 7. Any county, town, or village official that is elected in an odd-numbered year after the effective date of this act, excluding a village elected official who is elected on a date not in November, shall have their term expire as if such official were elected at the previous general election held in an even-numbered year; provided however in no 12 event shall such expiration occur later than December 31 of such following year. Such term shall be applicable to any general, special, or local law pertaining to term limits. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a county, town, or village from enacting a local law to alter or permit alteration of an official's term limit.
- § 8. Severability. If any provision of this act is held invalid or ineffective in whole or in part or inapplicable to any person or situation, such invalidity or holding shall not affect, impair or invalidate other provisions or applications of this act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and all other provisions thereof shall nevertheless be separately and fully effective, and to 23 this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.
- 24 § 9. This act shall take effect immediately.
