IN SENATE

April 26, 2021

Introduced by Sen. HELMING -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to certain service learning, internship, or independent study programs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 355 of the education law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 21 to read as follows:

3 21. The state university trustees shall adopt regulations to establish 4 a service learning, internship, or independent study program for 5 students that serve as active volunteer firefighters and/or active
6 volunteer ambulance workers. Each state-operated institution and commu-
7 nity college may, as determined by its president, offer such a service
8 learning, internship, or independent study program to eligible students 9 in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the state university
10 trustees. Such program shall consist of (a) a community service compo-11 nent that may be completed through no less than twenty hours of verifi-
12 able volunteer firefighting activities, volunteer ambulance or emergency 13 response activities, or other activities related to volunteer fire or 14 ambulance service as determined by the state university trustees, and 15 (b) an academic component related to such volunteer activity that may be 16 completed through a written report or journal, or other written assign-17 ment as determined by the state university trustees. Such program shall 18 be open to any student enrolled in an associate or baccalaureate 19 degree-producing program on a full-time or part-time basis that is an 20 active volunteer firefighter as defined in subdivision one of section 21 two hundred fifteen of the general municipal law or an active volunteer 22 ambulance worker as defined in subdivision fourteen of section two 23 hundred nineteen-k of the general municipal law. No more than six 24 academic credits shall be awarded to a student for successful completion 25 of such service learning, internship or independent study program. In
