55. Work opportunity tax credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, against the tax imposed by this article, of two thousand four hundred dollars for each long term unemployed person hired during a taxable year. Such tax credit shall be applicable only to businesses employing fifty or fewer employees. For the purposes of this subdivision, a "long term unemployed person" shall be an individual who has been a resident of New York for three years immediately preceding hiring and who, prior to being hired by the business eligible for the credit established pursuant to this subdivision, had been unemployed and receiving public assistance for six consecutive months or more, and is retained for full-time employment by such business for at least one

(b) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the fixed dollar minimum amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year 20 reduces the tax to such amount or if the taxpayer otherwise pays tax based on the fixed dollar minimum amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment of 23 tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of 24 section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon. The total amount of credit to be provided statewide for this credit, the credit allowed under subsection (kkk) of section six hundred six of this chapter and subdivision (ee) of section fifteen hundred eleven of this chapter shall not exceed fifteen million dollars in the aggregate in a taxable year.

- 8 (c) Credit recapture. For provisions requiring recapture of credit, 9 see section forty-four of this chapter.
- 10 § 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 11 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xlvi) to read as 12 follows:

13 (xlvi) Work opportunity tax credit 14 under subsection (kkk) 15 Amount of credit under subdivision fifty-five of section two hundred ten-B

- 16 § 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection 17 (kkk) to read as follows:
- 18 (kkk) Work opportunity tax credit. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer 19 shall be allowed a credit, against the tax imposed by this article, of two thousand four hundred dollars for each long term unemployed person 20 hired during a taxable year. Such tax credit shall be applicable only to 21 businesses employing fifty or fewer employees. For the purposes of this 22 subdivision, a "long term unemployed person" shall be an individual who 23 24 has been a resident of New York for three years immediately preceding 25 hiring and who, prior to being hired by the business eligible for the credit established pursuant to this subsection, had been unemployed and 26 27 receiving public assistance for six consecutive months or more, and is 28 retained for full-time employment by such business for at least one 29
 - (2) Application of credit. If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon. The total amount of credit to be provided statewide for this credit, the credit allowed under subdivision fifty-five of section two hundred ten-B of this chapter and subdivision (ee) of section fifteen hundred eleven of this chapter shall not exceed fifteen million dollars in the aggregate in a taxable year.
 - (3) Credit recapture. For provisions requiring recapture of credit, see section forty-four of this chapter.
- § 4. Section 1511 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-43 sion (ee) to read as follows:

44 (ee) Work opportunity tax credit. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer 45 shall be allowed a credit, against the tax imposed by this article, of two thousand four hundred dollars for each long term unemployed person 46 hired during a taxable year. Such tax credit shall be applicable only to 47 businesses employing fifty or fewer employees. For the purposes of this 48 49 subdivision, a "long term unemployed person" shall be an individual who 50 has been a resident of New York for three years immediately preceding hiring and who, prior to being hired by the business eligible for the 51 credit established pursuant to this subdivision, had been unemployed and 52 53 receiving public assistance for six consecutive months or more, and is 54 retained for full-time employment by such business for at least one year. The total amount of credit to be provided statewide shall not exceed fifteen million dollars in a taxable year.

- 3 (2) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision 4 shall not reduce the tax due for such year to be less than the minimum fixed by paragraph four of subdivision (a) of section fifteen hundred two or section fifteen hundred two-a of this article, whichever is applicable. However, if the amount of the credit allowed under this 7 8 subdivision for any taxable year reduces the taxpayer's tax to such 9 amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible will be treated as an 10 overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the 11 provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of one thousand eighty-eight 12 13 of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon. The 14 total amount of credit to be provided statewide for this credit, the credit allowed under subdivision fifty-five of section two hundred ten-B 15 16 of this chapter and subdivision (kkk) of section six hundred six of this 17 chapter shall not exceed fifteen million dollars in the aggregate in a 18 taxable year.
- 19 (3) Credit recapture. For provisions requiring recapture of credit, 20 see section forty-four of this chapter.
- § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 2022 and shall apply to eligible individuals hired on and after such effective date.
