training program pursuant to paragraph (n) of subdivision three of section five hundred seventy-five of the executive law shall be obligated to inform such courts within seventy-two hours of noncompliance so as to be removed from consideration for court ordered evaluations.

- (4) Upon appointment, the court shall require such child custody forensic evaluator to show proof of certification for completing within the last two years the training program pursuant to paragraph (n) of subdivision three of section five hundred seventy-five of the executive law.
- (5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit a party to a proceeding involving child custody and visitation from filing a private right of action against a child custody forensic evaluator involved in such proceeding.
- § 2. Paragraph (n) of subdivision 3 of section 575 of the executive law is relettered paragraph (o) and a new paragraph (n) is added to read as follows:
- 17 (n) (i) Contracting, within amounts appropriated for such purpose, with the not-for-profit entity the New York State Coalition Against 18 19 Domestic Violence, to develop a training program as described in this 20 paragraph. Such entity shall be responsible for providing such training 21 to psychiatrists, psychologists and social workers who are licensed in the state of New York, so that such individuals may conduct court 22 ordered forensic evaluations involving child custody and visitation 23 pursuant to paragraph (a-4) of subdivision one of section two hundred 24 25 forty of the domestic relations law; and for reviewing and updating 26 training topics at least once every two years. Such training shall 27 include, but not be limited to, a review of: relevant statutes; case law and psychological definitions of domestic violence; coercive control and 28 29 child abuse; the dynamics and effects of domestic violence and child 30 abuse, including but not limited to, emotional, financial, physical, 31 technological and sexual abuse; the barriers and fears associated with 32 reporting domestic violence and child abuse and why victims may not have 33 documented evidence of abuse; tactics commonly used by one party to induce fear in another party or child, including verbal, emotional, 34 35 psychological, and/or economic abuse, isolating techniques, coercive control, and monitoring of a partner's location and activities; liti-36 37 gation abuse and demands for custody or joint custody in order to pres-38 sure the partner to return or punish the partner for leaving; trauma, 39 particularly as it relates to sexual abuse and the risks posed to children and the long-term dangers and impacts imposed by the presence of 40 adverse childhood experiences; the increased risk of escalating violence 41 42 that occurs during child custody proceedings; and the danger of basing 43 child custody decisions on claims that a child's deficient or negative 44 relationship with a parent is caused by the other parent.
 - (ii) The office, in consultation with the New York State Coalition Against Domestic Violence, shall determine the number of training-hours for the first instance such program is provided to psychiatrists, psychologists and social workers and the number of training-hours for subsequent refresher courses provided to such individuals.
 - (iii) The New York State Coalition Against Domestic Violence shall be responsible for providing a certification of completion to each psychiatrist, psychologist or social worker who satisfies the requirements of such training program, so that such individuals may conduct court ordered forensic evaluations involving child custody and visitation pursuant to paragraph (a-4) of subdivision one of section two hundred forty of the domestic relations law.
